WORLD'S SERIES FIGURES

The total paid attendance for the series of eight games was 252,037.

The total receipts were $490,833.

Each club's share was $147,028.85.

The National Commission's share was $49,083.30.

The total players' share, derived from the first four games only, was $147,471.69.

Of this amount the Boston players, as winners, shared 60 per cent, or $88,543.01.

The New York players as losers, share $59,028.69.

Each Red Sox player, of whom 22 were eligible, received $4,024.68.

Each Giant player, of whom 23 were eligible, received $2,566.46.

The figures in every case are greater than those for any previous world's series.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 16.—The Boston Red Sox, pennant winners of the American League, are the world's champions of 1912. Defeating the New York Nationals today by a score of 3 to 2 in 10 innings of a bitterly fought struggle, they captured their fourth victory of the world's series and carried off the premier honors in baseball.

The Giants won three games of the series that was played before more than a quarter of a million people and one contest was a tie. The total receipts for the eight games were $490,833 and each Red Sox player received $4,024 while the Giants players each came in for $2,566.

Today's was a game of excitement and changing emotions for the 17,000 spectators who went to Fenway Park to see the teams which had struggled valiantly for seven games with honors even, meet in the deciding contest. Never was a ball game more hard fought, for it was not until twilight had fallen upon the 10th inning that the Red-Stockinged Yerkes flashed over the plate with the winning run.

Nine innings of a pitching duel between the master boxman of the Giants, Christy Mathewson, and the stripling Bedient and "Smoky" Joe Wood, for the Red Sox, found the two contenders for championship honors with a tally each.

Into the 10th inning the contest went and the Giants chilled the hopes of the Boston crowd by scoring a run on a double into the bleachers by Murray and a hit by Merkle to center, which Speaker juggled. Hundreds of fans tore up their score cards, jammed their hats down over their heads and disconsolately left the grounds, for Mathewson was pitching a game which was baffling Boston batsmen. Engle led off for the Red Sox in the last half of the tenth. He had gone to the bat for Joe Wood. The Red Sox pinch hitter sent up a towering fly to left center. Snodgrass moved over toward the bleacher seats and waited for the ball to drop. He muffed it, and before the ball was recovered Engle was on second base. No one was out and the crowd was in a frenzy of joy.

Hooper tried to sacrifice, but Mathewson foiled him, and the best the Red Sox right gardener could do was to fly to Snodgrass. The Giant pitcher tried to work the corners of the plate for Yerkes, but Yerkes waited him out and walked on four balls. With Engle on second and Yerkes on first, Tris Speaker came up. The crowd to a man was now yelling.

Speaker swung his big bat. The first ball was a curve and inside and Speaker popped up a high foul. Meyers, Merkle and Mathewson went after it, but it fell safe among them. New York's last chance to stop the Bostons passed with the failure to get that foul ball. Mathewson started a high, fast one and Speaker met it fairly. On a line over Doyle's head the ball was driven and Engle rushed over the plate with the tying run. On the throw in Yerkes went to third and Speaker dashed on to second.

The New York infield drew in and Lewis was purposely passed so that a runner could be forced at the plate on an infield grounder. Then came the finish. Gardner, with three balls and one strike on him, smashed a long fly to Devore. Yerkes set himself at third and dashed for home when the ball dropped into Devore's hands.

The Indian, Meyers, crouched at the plate to take the throw he expected from Devore. The instant he caught it, Devore whipped the ball homeward. On came the flying Yerkes; on came the ball. Mathewson, who saw the throw would be wide, threw up his hands and Meyers turned away without trying for the ball. Yerkes did not know the throw was wide, however, and he plunged head foremost and slid over the plate in a cloud of dust with the run that won the championship for the Red Sox. The crowd fairly screamed in a delirium of joy. Men threw their hats in the air and cheered until they could cheer no more. Hundreds rushed upon the field and gathering about the Red Sox bench applauded the winning players. Mathewson buried himself in his great coat and walked from the field. Scores of persons followed the pitcher and patted him on the back, congratulating him upon his fine work in the box. Manager McGraw elbowed his way through the throng to the Red Sox club house beneath the stand, where he congratulated Manager Stahl and the Red Sox players.

"I can't say that I'm glad Jake, but one of the teams had to win; it was the Red Sox and congratulations are in order," said Manager McGraw, addressing Stahl.

A spectator addressed an insulting remark to McGraw as he walked across the diamond and blows were passed, but no damage done.

Mathewson and Bedient were called upon to pitch the deciding game and the veteran outpitched his younger rival by a shade. Bedient was taken from the box to permit Hendricksen to bat for him in the seventh. Joe Wood went on the mound after Bedient and as the score was a tie at the time "Smoky Joe" gets the credit for the game, his third victory in the series.

Mathewson pitched 124 balls to the batters in the 10 innings. He threw only 97 balls in the first nine innings, the smallest number of balls pitched in nine innings by any twirler during the series.

Mathewson gave bases on balls to five Boston men today after having pitched 20 innings in the series without a pass.

Bedient threw 99 balls to New York batsmen in the seven innings, while Wood tossed 34 balls in three innings.

Mathewson guaged the position, style and characteristics of every batter who faced him. For those who stood away from the plate he threw consistently over the inside corner and for those who were close to the rubber he just cut the outside corners. During the early innings his control was remarkable.

The total paid attendance at today's game was 17,034, while the total receipts were $30,500, of which each club received $13,725 and the National Commission $3,050.

The weather was cold, with a northwest wind blowing when the game began. Mathewson pitched for New York, Bedient started twirling for Boston.

The Giants broke into the run column in the third inning. Devore received a base on balls. Doyle went out, Gardner to Stahl, Devore taking second. Snodgrass grounded out to Stahl, unassisted, and Devore slid into third. "Red" Murray smashed a terrific drive to left center field. The speedy Speaker was off immediately the ball left the bat, but was just able to touch the sphere with his fingers. Devore had trotted home with the first run and Murray rested on second base when the ball was returned to the infield. New York rooters were beside themselves with joy. Merkle ended the inning by grounding out, Wagner to Stahl.

The American league champions went out in order in their half of the third. Hooper died on a weak grounder, Doyle to Merkle, Mathewson relayed Yerkes grounder to first, and Speaker struck out.

The Red Sox opened the seventh, in which they tied the score, by Gardner flying to Snodgrass. Stahl dropped a single in left, Murray, Snodgrass and Fletcher balking each other in trying to get the fly. The Red Sox manager

EVERYBODY GIVING TO WILSON FUND

All Teams at Work, But Only Few Reported Last Night.

BOYS HAVE JOINED THE RANKS

Two Enterprising Youngsters Make Contributions—Colored Man Adds His Expression of Good Will—Total Amount.

Only very few of the teams at work for the Woodrow Wilson fund reported to the General Chairman last night, so that the full amount of the day's contributions cannot appear this morning, but the acknowledgments below indicate that the teams which did report have made very substantial progress and that the $10,000 for "Wilson to Win" is not only probable but certain.

People who do not get out and test the sentiment do not know just how easy it is to secure contributions to the fund. Everybody is wanting to give something and they are only waiting the right man or young lady to drop in and suggest the matter. Very few point blank refusals are made and these except in very rare cases, are accompanied with a valid excuse. The people seem to be awake to the fact that this is the people's fight for once and they are going in to help Wilmington win with Wilson.

As yet none of several clubs that are at work have made contributions and it is not too late to start new ones. Employes in offices, factories, on farms and in communities have an excellent opportunity of performing a great service by taking a list around and seeing just how easy it is to interest people in the people's fight. The ladies may do this work and already headquarters have been established in New York and the women of the country are doing good work in providing the sinews of war. They were the mainspring of the South during the War Between the States, and if they would only take hold now, the $10,000 fund would be in sight in a few days.

Yesterday the most inspiring events were the contributions of $5 and $1, respectively, by two enterprising young Wilmingtonians, whose names appear in the list below. They are young, but they are being heard and are setting an example that many business people might profit by. Then another remarkable example yesterday was that of Thos. A. Smith, the wood dealer and transfer man. He is a colored man and perhaps has a choice for the Presidency other than Woodrow Wilson.

OUTLINES

By defeating the New York Giants in the eight and deciding game of the world's series yesterday 3 to 2, the Boston Red Sox won the championship of the world. The Giants had a lead of one run in their half of the 10th inning but Boston won by sending two men across the plate in their half.

Colonel Roosevelt's condition yesterday was virtually unchanged and it may be several days before he is out of danger. It was learned that the would-be assassin's bullet fractured one of his ribs. Members of the former President's family reached Chicago yesterday and spent considerable time at his bedside.

U. S. District Attorney Miller, prosecuting the "dynamite" cases, yesterday called on the Department of Justice to make a rigid investigation of the reported slugging of H. O. Pearce, who testified Monday.

General Felix Diaz, nephew of ex-President Diaz, raised the banner of rebellion at Vera Cru yesterday.

The declaration of war by Bulgaria against Turkey was published in Sofia yesterday.

Italy and Turkey yesterday signed peace terms at Ouchy.

MESSAGE TO THE NATION FROM T. R.

Dictated from the Colonel's Sick Bed and Delivered By Beveridge

"MATTERS LITTLE ABOUT ME"

"If One Soldier Who Happens to Carry the Flag Is Stricken, Another Will Take It From His Hands and Carry It On."

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—Albert J. Beveridge, former Senator from Indiana, brought to Kentucky tonight Col. Roosevelt's message to the Nation, dictated from the colonel's sick bed in Mercy Hospital, in Chicago.

"It matters little about me," Colonel Roosevelt told Beveridge, "but it matters all about the cause we fight for. If one soldier who happens to carry the flag is stricken, another will take it from his hands and carry it on.

"You know that, personally, I did not want ever to be a candidate for office again," the message from the stricken ex-President continues. "And you know that only the call that came to the men of the "sixties" made me answer it in our day as they did more nobly in their day."

Col. Roosevelt was scheduled to speak in Louisville tonight. After having been shot down in Milwaukee, he cancelled all his engagements, but insisted that the address he was to have made in Louisville be delivered. He called on Senator Beveridge to speak in his stead.

"And now, as then, it is not important whether one leader lives or dies," continues the message, "it is important only that the cause shall live and win. Tell the people not to worry about me; for if I go down another will take my place. For always the army is there. Always the cause is there, and it is the cause for which the people care. It is the people's cause."

Senator Beveridge said:

"This is his message to all his countrymen. He gave it clearly and calmly; not recklessly nor with fever; not in the heat of battle, not in bitterness, nor yet in self pride, but with cool mind and kindly heart.

"He bade me put it thus to the people" continued Mr. Beveridge. "We stand between two mighty greeds—the greed of those who have, and the greed of those who have not. The reform party to which all just men and women, rich and poor, who want only justice can belong".

"Col. Roosevelt tonight would have put to Mr. Wilson," continued Mr. Beveridge, "the questions about to follow, none of which was devised by Col. Roosevelt, but all of which were written and sent to the colonel by the headwaiter of a hotel. Here are the questions:

"'Is it not a fact that the laws of the State under which a corporation is organized prescribe its power?

"'Are not all the powers of the Standard Oil and similar monopolies conferred by the laws of New Jersey?

"'Could not these powers be curtailed by amendments to the New Jersey laws?

"'Why has not Mr. Wilson, as Governor of New Jersey, recommended such amendments'?"

"In his inaugural, Mr. Wilson explicitly stated that New Jersey had brought discredit upon herself by failure to act about the trusts, that she ought to act, not only as regards new trusts but as regards the old trusts already existing. He has again and again explicitly stated that the questions of the trusts is primarily a question for the States themselves; and, of course, there are 10 times as many trusts and 10 times as important trusts and incorporations in New Jersey as any other State. The Democratic platform jealously insists upon the 'rights of the States' to deal with the trusts. Yet, Mr. Wilson, at the same time he ventured to attack me—although he must have well known that I was the first President to deal adequately with the trusts—has, while Governor of New Jersey, while possessing the power, failed to take action against the trusts.

"I ask Mr. Wilson," continues Col. Roosevelt's message, as delivered by Mr. Beveridge, "to answer categorically and specifically and not by loose general arguments, just why it was after making the recommendation he made in his inaugural and while insisting that the trust question was a State

EYES ON WILMINGTON!

New York, Oct. 16th, 1912.

Joseph E. Thompson, Morning Star, Wilmington, N. C.

On behalf of the Democratic National Committee, I want to convey our appreciation and thanks to the Democrats of Wilmington who are doing such magnificent work in raising a substantial fund for the National Campaign.

Wilmington has been distinguished among the cities of the South for liberality in the offering of her Democrats and we are especially grateful to our friends who are thus assisting us. I hope that there will be no cessation of your efforts and that Wilmington may have to her credit at the close of the campaign at least ten thousand. There is no better way in which the Democrats of North Carolina can promote the success of the National ticket. We are greatly pressed to meet the ordinarily obligations of the campaign and count upon Wilmington to do the very best possible by us. For the work of The Chairman National Finance Committee.

HENRY MORGENTHAU,

Treasurer Democratic National Committee.

COL. ROOSEVELT NOT YET OUT OF DANGER

Colonel's Condition is Practically Unchanged, But Physicians Express No Anxiety Over It—Would-Be Assassin's Bullet Fractured Rib—Patient Spends Quiet Day. Members of Family at His Bedside.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The bullet wound inflicted in Colonel Roosevelt's chest at Milwaukee Monday night, it officially was announced today for the first time, is healing normally without infection. The statement that no complications have shown themselves was made after a day during which the first successful X-Ray picture of the wound in the Colonel's chest was examined by the surgeons. The fact developed that the would-be assassin's bullet fractured the Colonel's fourth rib. The missile remains imbedded, apparently in the bone. The fracture, however, it is stated, will not affect the treatment in anyway, but will be allowed to heal untreated, as will the wound.

A description of the wound given by Dr. W. B. McCauley is the first to be given to the public by the surgeons. He said that the bullet's path through the muscle of the chest is lacerated to some extent by the battered lead, but that there was little contusion and no extensive area of bruised and extravasated surrounding tissue.

"The bullet did not 'mushroom' as might have been expected," said Dr. McCauley. "For that reason it cut a comparatively small hole in the skin and did not reduce a large portion of the nearby tissues to pulp as is the case in a soft bullet that 'mushrooms' in animal tissue after it hits a bone. I think the bundle of papers in Colonel Roosevelt's pockets checked it and the spectacle case for some reason failed to spread the bullet much.

"The wound is about big enough to put your finger in at the surface, and it does not appear to get very much bigger. I would call it a very clean wound. The skin is torn at the surface in a ragged way, but not badly and there is little bruising.

"There is not a sign of supperation in the wound. The flesh is in good condition and seems to bee healing without complication. If there were pus forming deep in the wound we would have known it at once by an unusual rise of temperature."

Mr. McCauley added that it is now certain from the X-Ray pictures that the bullet has not entered or injured the plural cavity, removing a grave possibility in the case. He pointed out the normal condition of the patient indicated by the official chart taken at 10 P. M.

Dr. McCauley's statement was given after leaving the Colonel's room and after a consultation with the other surgeons.

He confirmed previous announcements that no attempt would be made at present to remove the bullet which is not expected to hinder the healing of the fractured rib.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—After a day of ceaseless vigil, Col. Roosevelt's physicians tonight could say no more than that his condition was virtually unchanged. Indications, they said, pointed to the speedy recovery of the ex-President from the effects of the bullet, which struck him in Milwaukee on Monday night.

A rise in temperature late in the day, however, made his condition for the time being somewhat less favorable. The colonel's temperature went to 99, but soon receded to 98.8.

The fact that a rib was fractured, which was not disclosed until today, and that the precise location of the fullet had not been discovered, added to the feeling of uncertainty.

Not before Friday, if all goes well, will the physicians be prepared to say that their patient is out of danger. The intervening period will be required to determine whether blood poisoning or other complications are to be feared.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., after a talk with his father and a consultation with the physicians, expressed the feelings of those about the ex-President today.

"It will be four or five days," said he, "before we can breathe easily."

Col. Roosevelt spent an apparent quiet and carefree day, seemingly the less concerned of all. He was cheered by the appearance of Mrs. Roosevelt, who arrived early in the day from New York and remained with him constantly. He felt no pain,he said, and moved about at will on his bed, reading or dictating telegrams or talking with members of his family. In the afternoon he slept for a time.

Dr. John B. Murphy, who is in charge of the case; Dr. Arthur Dean Bevan and Dr. Terrell, Col. Roosevelt's physician, held three consultations during the day. Aside from the official bulletins which they issued, which gave little indication of any change, they would say little of the condition of the patient.

"Why it was that the fracture of Col. Roosevelt's rib was not discovered until today was not made known, although it was said that there was no cause for alarm on this account.

As soon as Mrs. Roosevelt reached the hospital this morning she took charge of affairs. She was accompanied by Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Miss Ethel Roosevelt. Later in the day Congressman Longworth arrived. Mrs. Roosevelt installed herself in a room adjoining that of her husband and during the day seldom left his bedside.

Mrs. Roosevelt's first move was to decree that the colonel must see no visitors except the members of his family. Once or twice during the day she made exceptions, but otherwise she adhered firmly to her resolution.

The colonel was "feeling fine" and ready to receive visitors, but Mrs. Roosevelt gave him no opportunity to pass upon her ruling, for she made it on her own authority and saw to it that it was enforced. She received the cards and messages for her husband and sent back her replies with the result that the colonel himself did not know who wished to see him.

It was learned today that the X-ray photograph which was taken in Milwaukee, a few minutes after Col. Roosevelt was shot, did not show accurately the location of the bullet, and another photograph was taken this afternoon. It is probable that after the plate is developed, if good results are obtained a decision will be reached as to whether the bullet will be removed. The bullet, it was said, is resting against the fractured rib, the fourth one on the right side and the proximity of the ribs rendered it diiucult to obtain the desired result with the X-ray. The fracture of the rib explained the pain which Col. Roosevelt felt in breathing deeply.

The impression grew today that Col. Roosevelt would be able to do little or nothing more in the campaign. Although he expressed the hope of leaving for Oyster Bay Sunday, it is probable that he will be compelled to remain in the hospital for at least a week longer and that after his arrival at home he will not be permitted to plunge into the campaign again.

Associates of Col. Roosevelt said that, while he was deeply disappointed at being obliged to leave the fight during the closing weeks, when it was to be hardest, he was showing no concern as to the possible effect of his removal from the field of battle. It is Col. Roosevelt's desire to make at least one more speech before election day and that in his own State of New York. If he can do nothing else he hopes to speak in Madison Square Garden.

There was little in the appearance of Col. Roosevelt to indicate that he is not in his usual health. His face has not lost its color, and propped up with pillows, he moved about easily and apparently was free from pain. As he talked he used his characteristic gestures, although with perhaps less vigor than is usual with him, and at times his laugh could be heard in the corridor outside. He seemed to enjoy his relief from the cares of politics and seemed determined to make his stay in the hospital an enjoyable vacation. His three children who are in Chicago, dropped in to see him three times during the day, talking for a half hour each time. Mrs. Roosevelt would not permit them to remain longer, lest her husband tire himself.

Once during the afternoon Mrs. Roosevelt found O. K. Davis, secretary of the Progressive National Committee in Col. Roosevelt's room. He remained there only a few seconds after the appearance of Mrs. Roosevelt, who without debate exiled him to the corridor.

The tenseness of anxiety manifested yesterday began to disappear today. The nurses, who yesterday flitted silently about, stopped as they passed to chat. The policeman on guard at Col. Roosevelt's door permitted himself the luxury of a chair.

On the street, outside the hospital there was less of a crowd, and at times only newspaper reporters and correspondents were to be seen.

Messages of condolence continued to pour in today from all parts of the world. Among them were cablegrams from crowned heads of Europe. Col. Roosevelt read over a large number of telegrams, but found it impossible to reply to them all.

One of them was from Samuel Gompers, reading: "Upon learning of the outrageous attack upon you, I was too much shocked to find expression. I join with the men of organized labor, in common with all our people who are profoundly hoping for and expecting your speedy recovery."

Col. Roosevelt laughed heartily at a message from three of his athletic friends: "The Bull Moose league of athletics expresses to you its deepest sympathy and trusts that our athletic bull moose will soon be restored to us. Committee—Johnny Hayes, Melvin Seppard, Michael J. Ryan."

Col. Roosevelt's old friend, Father Curran, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., arrived at the hospital late in the day, having come from Battle Creek, Mich., to see the colonel. An hour before he arrived a telegram was received from him saying: "I cannot rest until I see you. Be at hospital."

Col. Roosevelt talked with him for a quarter of an hour.

Bullet Not Poisoned.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 16.—All fear that the bullet with which Col. Roosevelt was shot might have been inoculated with poison, was dispelled today when Prof. E. W. Sommer, analytical chemist, notified District Attorney Zabel that no traces of poison were found by him in the empty chamber and upon the other bullets in the pistol with which John Schrank shot Col. Roosevelt Monday night.

To satisfy himself as to the mental condition of the assailant, and as to the first step in the preparation of his case, District Attorney Zabel has engaged the services of three alienists moved down to second when Wagner was given a base on balls. It was up to Cady to do something, but the home rooters groaned when he popped a fly into the waiting hands of Fletcher. Henricksen, batting for Bedient, let a couple of balls go by him and then he opened on the next pitched and slammed the ball down the left field base line for two bases and Stahl came home with the tying run amid great excitement. Wagner took third on the play. Hooper tried hard to bring Wagner home, but he flew out to Snodgrass.

The Giants took the lead in the first half of the tenth. Snodgrass went out to Stahl. Murray slammed out a double to left and scored on Merkle's hit. Merkle took second, when Speaker fumbled the ball. Herzog struck out. Meyers went out, Wood to Stahl.

Then came Boston's sensational finish in which the Red Sox scored two runs and captured the championship title.

BADEN STILL WINNING.

Takes $5,000 October Prize at Grand Circuit Meeting.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 16.—Baden, the largest money winner of the year, won the $5,000 October prize for 2:08 trotters, the principal race of the Grand Circuit meeting here today, after finishing fourth in the first heat, because of a bad break at the start. With today's winnings, Baden's total for the year is $36,500.

The 2:21 class trot was won in straight heats by Belle Ashland. The 2:10 trot also was a straight heat race in which Ross B. was easily the best of a field of ten.

Don Fronto broke the world's five-year-old pacing record. Driven by Billy Durfee and prompted by a runner with Murphy up, he went the mile in 2:03 1-4.

Margaret Ranish failed to lower the world's four-year-old trotting record, but made the mile in 2:05 1-2.

Nationals Go to Pieces and Chicago White Sox Win.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The Chicago National League club went to pieces in the eighth inning of today's game for the Chicago championship with the Chicago Americans. Both Reulbach and Cheney were batted out of the box and the Sox clinched the game by scoring four runs. The series now stands three to two in favor of the Nationals.

SYSTEM IS WRONG

American Beef Cheaper in London Than In New York

New York, Oct. 16.—That the Beef Trust and other trusts controlling our food supply are enabled, by the tariff wall, to charge from 50 to 100 per cent more to the New York consumer than the prices that obtain in London, is made plain from comparative figures obtained by the Committee on Exhibits of the Democratic National Committee. The committee has sent an agent to London, to purchase American made goods for the Tariff Chamber of Horrors. He has sent to the committee the prices of meats, butter, eggs and sugar in the retail markets at London for a certain date. On the same day, by prearrangement, representatives of the committee got prices for similar articles in New York. Abram I. Elkus, chairman of the committee, made the list public Sunday.

The difference in price is particularly apparent in beef. The London prices were obtained from high-class shops on Bedford street and Tottenham Court Road. The New York prices were averaged from the figures of several moderate-priced butchers and grocers.

"Our figures are absolutely unanswerable," declared Mr. Elkus. "They prove how the high tariff mulcts us at every meal."

Congressman William C. Redfield, the Democratic tariff expert, in commenting on the prices and explaining them, said:

"The cold facts concerning the difference in the prices of food on the same day in New York and London ought to open the eyes of every working man; indeed, of every consumer, but especially those of modest means, to current conditions. When a careful housewife goes to market in New York, she pays 24 cents per pound for the same roast beef that her London sister buys at 13 cents. If she wishes to provide her husband with a sirloin steak, she can only do it by paying more than double the price at which on that day it is sold in England. It is interesting to note that on ham the difference in price is almost exactly the amount of the duty with which we tax that food of 4 cents a pound, and that the cost of eggs is lower in Great Britain by rather more than the duty of 5 cents a dozen. We impose also duty on butter and cheese of 6 cents per pound.

"When will our working people learn the error of taxing their ordinary articles of food? It would seem as if this exposition taken under such striking conditions and with such exact and careful comparisons should destroy once and for all the illusion of prosperity rising from the tariff."

More Witnesses Implicate Becker In Murder of Rosenthal

New York, Oct. 16.—"When this sensation blows over the public will give me a pension for killing that —— crook, Rosenthal."

These are the words attributed to Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, by James D. Hallen, a fellow prisoner in the Tombs at today's session of Becker's trial, on the charge of instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who "squealed" against him.

Hallen was one of 15 witnesses who testified today for the State. Assistant District Attorney Moss announced when adjournment was taken tonight that he had only one or two more witnesses to call to complete the case of the people.

Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, widow of the gambler, the first witness of the day, testified that Lieutenant Becker, her husband's alleged partner in his gambling house, had said to her on the occasion of a raid he had made on the establishment: "It's either Herman or me."

This is the so-called "fake" raid which the prosecution claims was forced on Becker by his superior officers. Mrs. Rosenthal testified also that when she came to bury her husband she only had $100 "to her name"—all that had been left her by Rosenthal.

This was a bit of testimony elicited by the State with intent to spike the guns of Becker's defense.

"We introduced this," said Assistant District Attorney Moss, "because it had been claimed by the defense that gamblers gave Rosenthal $25,000 to insure his silence."

Members of the household of Jack Rose, Becker's alleged graft collector, told of frequent visits of the accused police official to "Bald Jack's" home. Rose's Swedish maid swore that Becker was accustomed to breakfast with her master "nearly every day since Christmas."

Two waiters from the Union Square Hotel told of frequent meetings between Rose and Becker in the hotel dining room when "they talked a long while." One of the waiters said he saw Rose pass the police lieutenant "a roll of bills."

PEEPLES NOMINATED.

Has Apparently Defeated Lyon in S. C. Primary.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 16.—Thomas H. Peeples, of Parnhill apparently was nominated for attorney general over J. Frazer Lyon, incumbent, in the second State Democratic primary held Tuesday. The vote tonight stands: Peeples 24,711; Lyons 21,446.

In many precincts in various sections of the State no primary was held. The primary was postponed from September 10th, because of the protest of the vote for Governor and the subsequent investigation by the State Executive Committee.

but he explained to the committee which went to him yesterday that it was a Wilmington enterprise and that so long as he made his living in Wilmington he was in for Wilmington to win on any proposition that she undertook. That was a fine example of the Wilmington Spirit—the spirit that will make the city win if any considerable number of her inhabitants will adopt the policy. Another Taft man added his contribution yesterday and frankly stated that he saw in it for Wilmington more than the mere election of a Democratic President, as much as he might deplore such a "calamity". He dug deep into his trousers and fished out a $5 bill that he patriotically contributed to help elect a Wilmington man for President.

Not a great many more contributors are needed. The compilation is given on the fifth page of The Star today. Teams are exhorted to go to work at once and see that every man has an opportunity of contributing something. They are only waiting to be approached. Upon each team member there is resting a civic responsibility that cannot be shirked. They must be up and doing today. Another general meeting is to be held this evening and team members are asked to see that their chairmen are able to show their "footprints" on the roster of subscribers. Wilmington is attracting attention everywhere the green-eyed monster of jealousy does not obtrude. Chairman Morgenthau, of the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Finance Committee, telegraphed his greetings in the telegram given elsewhere on this page and the following telegram was received yesterday afternoon from Congressman H. L. Godwin, who is watching with interest the progress Wilmington is making toward securing the $10,000 for the Wilson-Marshall fund:

DIAZ JOINS REBELLION.

Nephew of Ex-President Raises Banner at Vera Cruz.

Mexico City, Oct. 16.—General Felix Diaz, nephew of ex-President Diaz, raised the banner of rebellion at Vera Cruz today. He entered the city with 500 men and seized the arsenal and garrison. Colonel Diaz Ordaz was in command of the garrison, which comprised 500 of the 21st Infantry and one six-gun battery.

Diaz then placed men in charge of the two gunboats Tampico and Bravo, lying in the harbor.

The news of the uprising created great excitement here, although there were no street demonstrations. Mexicans generally appeared elated at the new developments. Later reports are that General Diaz found many adherents when he entered Vera Cruz, including some of the troops, but the government has been informed that the 19th Infantry and the artillery remain loyal. Colonel Guiterrez, commanding the loyal troops, notified the government that he will resist.

The two forces are now in the city of Vera Cruz, and street fighting is imminent.

President Madero has ordered the mobilization of 3,000 regulars to proceed against General Diaz. The arrest of alleged partisans of Diaz in Mexico City is expected momentarily.

The governemnt nas instructed the railroad into Vera Cruz to withdraw all equipment—the Mexican to Orizaba, the Inter-Oceanic to Jalapa and the Vera Cruz-Pacific to Sierra Blanca.

WON'T DISCUSS MOOSERS.

Wilson Finds It Impossible to Cancel Engagements—Stops Saturday.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 16.—Governor Wilson attempted today to cancel all his speaking engagements, but found it impossible to do so. In his speeches of the next three days he will omit all discussion of the Progressive party, and except for a speech at Madison Square Garden, New York, on October 31st, he will do no more campaigning after next Saturday until Col. Roosevelt is able to speak again.

INVESTIGATION WANTED

"Dynamite" Witness Slugged at Kansas City—Trial Progresses

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 16.—U. S. District Attorney Charles A. Miller tonight telegraphed Attorney General Wickersham asking the Department of Justice to make a rigid investigation of the reported slugging at Kansas City, Mo., of H. O. Pearce, who testified on Monday as a witness of government in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial.

When shown a message from Kansas City that Pearce had been held up and robbed, Mr. Miller said his information had been such as to warrant him in sending to Washington a request for an investigation.

"At the beginning of the trial here we could take no chances in tolerating any rough tactics," said Mr. Miller. "Pearce came here under subpoena from the government and neither he nor any other witness is to be molested on account of any testimony he might have given."

The district attorney's telegram asked for a "vigorous Federal investigation for the purpose of determining the perpetrators of the outrage."

Pearce, who was a clerk in a Kansas City hotel, in his testimony identified Ortie E. McManigal as having registered at the hotel August 10th, 1910, as J. W. McGraw, St. Louis.

While Pearce was on the stand only a short time and merely indentified McManigal, his testimony was said by government attorneys to be important in connection with other details of the "dynamite conspiracy" in which 45 men are on trial.

The government announced it would be shown that a conference took place in Kansas City concerning the proposed Pacific coast explosions. According to the government James B. McNamara, W. Bert Brown, an iron workers' official in Kansas City on trial here, and a "citizen" whose name was not given, talked about proposed jobs to be blown up. The district attorney asserted that McNamara and Brown urged the "citizen" to go into the dynamiting business, saying "there's lots of money in it for you, and you've got the protection of the union. We're going to blow up the whole town of Los Angeles," but that the unnamed person refused to enter the conspiracy.

All the testimony taken today was devoted to identification of documents which are to be read to the jury in connection with the testimony of later witnesses.

MARSHALL BEGINS TRIP.

Would Stop Campaigning if It Were Possible, He Says.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 16.—"I would gladly forego my long, arduous speaking tour to the Pacific coast," said Governor Marshall, Democratic Vice Presidential candidate, today when he received the decision of Governor Wilson to cancel speaking dates until the recovery of the former President.

"But I am under the orders of the National Committee," continued the Governor, "and unless I am further instructed I shall depart tonight for Chicago to begin my trip."

The car that conquers every territory it enters is the car to tie to

K-r-i-t cars have already conquered in many sections. They have never yet failed in profit to the dealer, and satisfaction to the buyer.

Increased production now enables us to bring them to you.

Here, therefore, is the opportunity for dealer and buyer alike—a car of medium price that offers such value and service that it has made a clean sweep.

One of the explanations of K-r-i-t value is—that all the essential parts are made within the K-r-i-t organization; the money is put into the car itself and not in useless equipment.

Dealers who know the K-r-i-t, know that the best part of the K-r-i-t profit lies in its character—which makes it a successful car next year as well as this year because the K-r-i-t reputation rolls up the sales. Moreover they know that K-r-i-t service means that the K-r-i-t Motor Car Company stands back of every car—that a written guarantee for a year goes with each car.

The dealer knows also that when he is offering the K-r-i-t he is offering his client a full $900 worth in power, speed, ease in riding, room, comfort, and reliability—more in fact, for that sum than he could ever offer before.

Therefore, the Dealer who ties up with the K-r-i-t will be scoring, like others before him, the biggest business stroke of his career. He will be tying to a car that will sweep through his territory just as it has triumphed elsewhere.

If you understand the technical side of an automobile, bear in mind that the K-r-i-t motor, clutch and transmission are a unit.

That means conservation of power, getting as near as possible 100-per cent efficiency. And speaking of power, don't forget that while the K-r-i-t is medium in price, it is full powered, staunch and husky, equal to any work.

K-r-i-t models are finished in black and nickel and with 56 or 60-inch tread as desired. Their equipment is complete.

An electric lighting system including five lamps, and 100-hour storage battery is added to each car for $10 extra.

Other Models—"KR" Roadster $900; "KD" Delivery $900; Completely Equipped F. O. B. Detroit.

SYNODS JOIN IN CELEBRATION

Virginia and North Carolina Took Part in Interesting Exercises at Richmond, Va., Yesterday—Special Train.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Richmond, Va., Oct. 16.—The largest single gathering in the history of the Southern Presbyterian church was held in Richmond when the Synod of Virginia and the Synod of North Carolina united in the celebration of the 100th anniversary of Union, the oldest theological seminary in the church. These two Synods combined constitute a body much larger than the General Assembly of the church, the ministerial membership of the Synod of Virginia being more than 400 and that of the Synod of North Carolina being more than 300. The Synod of North Carolina arrived in a body on a special train from Goldsboro at 1:30 o'clock. The members were met by the committee and were escorted to the Capitol building where a picture of the body was taken. They were then taken to the Richmond hotel where lunch was served. Cars were then taken for the Seminary, located in Ginter Park. The exercises of the celebration for the afternoon were held in an improvised auditorium on the campus of the seminary. The weather was all that could be desired.

George W. Watts, of Durham, president of the board of trustees of the Seminary, presided. Seated on the platform with Mr. Watts were Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., president of the Seminary, Rev. T. E. Welford, moderator of the Synod of Virginia; Rev. W. M. C. White, moderator of the Synod of North Carolina, representatives of the other theological schools of the church, representatives of the periodicals of the church, representatives of the executive committee of the church, and a number of other prominent masters of the church, including the speakers who took part on the programme.

Rev. Robt. F. Campbell, of Asheville, was the first speaker of the afternoon. His subject was "Union Seminary in the Pastorate." He paid high tribute to the contribution the Seminary has made to the 1,300 pastorates of the church, 38 per cent. of these churches today being Union Seminary men. He spoke also of the literary contributions these pastors have given to the church.

Mr. Welford introduced the next speaker, Rev. David M. Sweets, of Louisville, whose subject was "Union Seminary in Religious Journalism."

An original poem by Rev. William Hervey Woods, of Baltimore, in the form of a tribute to the Seminary, was the next feature of the programme.

"Union Seminary in Theological, Educational and Religious Thought," was the subject of the address of Rev. Theron H. Rice, D. D., of the Seminary.

Supper was served at the Seminary after which an ejoyable reception was held. The evening exercises were held in the city Auditorium. After devotional services words of greeting were extended from the other Theological Seminaries of the church, Columbia, Austin and Louisville.

Hon. Wm. Hodges Mann, Governor of Virginia, delivered the address of welcome to the two Synods, the spirit and words of his address being most cordial and his tribute to Virginia and North Carolina and to Presbyterianism and Union Seminary being of the highest order. He spoke especially of the influence for the right which has gone out from the Seminary through all her history and emphasized the fact that it means much to the world for a school to take that stand and hold it.

Brief but appreciative responses to this address were delivered by the moderators of North Carolina and Virginia. Interesting addresses were made by a number of prominent churchmen.

A telegram was read from Mrs. Cyrus M. McCormick, of Chicago, expressing her regret at not being able to attend the celebration and saying that she desired to give $10,000 to the endowment fund of the seminary in memory of her husband.

Rev. Jas. I. Vance, of Nashville, was the last speaker who is chairman of the executive committee of foreign missions, and "Union Seminary and Foreign Missions" was his subject. He referred to the strong force of the Seminary in the foreign mission work showing that subject as a part of the course of study was first introduced into the curriculum of this school and that a large per cent. of the 321 foreign missionaries of the church are Union Seminary men, all of whom are an honor to the Seminary and to the Church. All of the celebration exercises were heard by very large audiences.

The Synod of North Carolina will return to Goldsboro tomorrow and resume its sessions, the meeting of the Synod of Virginia will be continued in Richmond. No greater evidence of the sincere confidence and love of the Church for Dr. Moore, president of the Seminary, has been given than was given repeatedly during the exercises of today. Dr. Moore pronounced the benediction with which the centennial celebration closed.

At the opening sessions Tuesday, Rev. A. W. Crawford, of Rowland, and Rev. E. L. Siler, of Montreat, were elected temporary clerks by acclamation. Rev. V. G. Smith, pastor of the church in which Synod is being held, extended to the body a cordial welcome. The hours for the holding the daily sessions of Synod were fixed at 9 A. M. to 1:30 P. M., 3 to 5:30 P. M. and at 7:30 P. M., to adjourn at will.

Rev. Geo. H. Atkinson, of Albemarle, conducted the devotional service with which the afternoon session began. During this service special prayer was offered for the work and workers in the different foreign mission fields of the church. Mr. Atkinson presided until the moderator arrived and during this time Dr. Martin, president of Davidson College, presented a most encouraging report of the college. This address showed that Davidson College had this year the largest and most encouraging opening in its history. There are 136 in the Freshman class, and in all 150 new students, giving a total enrollment of more than 300. The increase of North Carolina students is 50 per cent larger than last year and the number from eastern North Carolina is more than 50 per cent above that of last year. Dr. Martin spoke also of the good behavior of the students and of the training for leadership for life which Davidson College endeavors to give. He stated in the latter connection that the effort is to give the best leadership for life and that spiritual leadership is the best leadership. He said also that today there are too many intellectual giants in the world who are spiritual pigmies and that Davidson College is trying to avoid making this undesirable combination of her students, but, on the other hand, to make strong leaders of her students as the result of the principles back of them. When closing his address he told the members of Synod to send boys to Davidson College if they believed in the college and in the boys, and to get behind the boys and help them, but not to send boys to the college who are only poorly prepared. The moderator announced the standing committees for this meeting of Synod.

Only a short session was held Tuesday afternoon, recess being taken in order that the committees might have opportunity to hold meetings. That evening Rev. Byron Clark, D. D., of Salisbury, preached the annual sermon before the Synod.

SPEAKS FOR SIMMONS

W. M. Bond Addresses Washington Audience—Court In Session

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., Oct. 16.—Mr. W. M. Bond, a prominent attorney of Edenton and one of the brightest and most eloquent orators of Eastern Carolina, addressed a large gathering of prominent citizens at the county Court House in this city at noon yesterday in behalf of Hon. F. M. Simmons and his return to the United States Senate from North Carolina at the coming primaries. Mr. Bond was gracefully introduced to his audience by Mr. Joseph F. Taylor in words of ornateness and beauty. He spoke for nearly an hour and his speech was a master piece, strongly defending the Senator and his record against the attacks of Governor Kitchin, who is aspiring to fill his place. Among other things Mr. Bond referred to Governor Kitchin as "The Pirate of North Carolina Democracy." Mr. Bond's speech was a vote-getter and if it could have been heard in every county of the State there is no telling what Simmons' majority would be. His audience was large and enthusiastic, and his speech was well received and many times applauded.

The regular October term of Beaufort county Superior Court is now in session in this city, with his Honor Judge Lane, of Reidsville, on the bench, and Solicitor Ehringhause representing the State. The first week will be devoted to the trial of criminal cases, of which there are 27 on the docket, and the second week will be devoted to civil cases.

The Washington Motor Car & Machine Company, which has formerly been located on Water street, are today moving to their new garage in the handsome new Hassell Supply Co. building on Market street.

In response to the call recently made by the Greek Consul at Wilmington for all Greeks in the United States to return to their native land and take part in the war against Turkey, Mr. Spires Yahspulsy, a local Greek of this city, left yesterday for New York, where he will sail for Greece in compliance with his country's call.

THOMAS AND FAISON

Speeches at Warsaw and In Third Congressional District

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rose Hill, N. C., Oct. 16.—Hon. Chas. R. Thomas made a great speech at Warsaw Saturday in behalf of Senator Simmons. He took up every charge that Kitchin and his followers have brought against him and completely vindicated the public and private record of the South's leader in the Senate. Mr. Thomas has known Mr. Simmons from boyhood up to this hour. Many declared his speech Saturday the best they ever heard in defense of any man. Dr. John M. Faison spoke later in the day to the voters in a strong appeal for Democracy. He painted the picture to them of Wilson and Craig and was frequently applauded. He is now canvassing the entire Third district with old time Democratic speeches. While in Congress Dr. Faison has become familiar with all questions of interest to the people and he presented them forcefully and in a way to make votes. His physical endurance is far more than the average speaker could stand and this is greatly in his favor. The county candidates speak at Warsaw Saturday of this week. R. D. Johnson, Esq., State Senator, is making a canvass with them and is making good speeches at all points. The situation in Duplin is all right. There will be gains in all precincts.

The Quickest, Simplest Cough Cure

Easily and Cheaply Made at Home. Saves You $2.

This recipe makes a pint of cough syrup—enough to last a family a long time. You couldn't buy as much or as good cough syrup for $2.50.

Simple as it is, it gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. This is partly due to the fact that it is slightly laxative, stimulates the appetite and has an excellent tonic effect. It is pleasant to take—children like it. An excellent remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, sore lungs, asthma, throat troubles, etc.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

Pine is one of the oldest and best known remedial agents for the throat membranes. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the other natural healing elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The prompt results from this recipe have endeared it to thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

WAKE FOREST LIQUOR CASE

Express Agent Not Guilty—Opinions By Supreme Court—Crowds at State Fair—Building Commission Meets

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 16.—The Supreme Court delivery of opinions today for this week included the noted case of State vs. J. L. Allen, from Wake Forest, the express company agent charged with selling whiskey because he wrote orders for whiskey for patrons to be shipped by express and profited through the ten per cent commission he received on all express handled.

The lower court held that Allen was not guilty and the State appealed, the Supreme Court now finding no error in the ruling of the lower court, though Judge Ferguson acquitting the express agent. The opinion is written by Justice Hoke and reviews the law at much length, containing eight typewritten pages. A notable feature is that the court holds that the sale of the whiskey was consummated in Virginia at the mail order house and that the transaction was necessarily an inter-State transaction.

The full list of opinions follows:

Hill and Register vs. Atlantic Coast Line, Sampson, affirmed; Warrington vs. N. S. Railroad Co., Craven, affirmed; Jones vs. Sandlin, Sampson, new trial; Henderson vs. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., Onslow, reversed; Stone vs. Rich, Sampson, action dismissed; Hamilton vs. Hines Lumber Co., Lenoir, no error; Carter vs. Lumber Co., Sampson, new trial; Wilkins vs. Atlantic Coast Line, Lenoir, no error; Culbreth vs. Hall, Sampson, modified and affirmed, costs against defendant; In re J. E. L. Wilson, Sampson, affirmed; State vs. J. L. Allen, Wake, no error; Holder vs. North Carolina Railroad Co., Wake, affirmed; Burger vs. Smith, Wayne, no error; Partin vs. Prince, Wake, new trial; Bank vs. Brown, Robeson, affirmed; McKay vs. Atlantic Coast Line, Cumberland, new trial.

This was the second day of the North Carolina State Fair and the grounds were thronged with people all morning and afternoon and tonight the midway and other attractions are in full swing, this being the first year that the grounds have been opened to the public at night. The opening feature of the day was the parade of decorated automobiles and floats out Fayetteville street and Hillsboro street to the Fair grounds, the procession being headed by the Third Regiment band. This line of automobiles was particularly attractive and the big parade a big success in every way. During the morning and afternoon the free attractions and the races were in full swing and attracted thousands of people while the exhibition halls were thronged and the day altogether a complete success. Some of the excellent free attractions that are being much complimented are hippodrome races, trick bicycle acts, high wire performances, balloon racing and numbers of others.

The State Building Commission was here today going over the new quarter million dollar fire-proof State building that is nearing completion at the corner of Fayetteville and Morgan streets. The commissioners are well pleased with the progress of the work, and are sure that the building will be completed ready for delivery to the Legislature January 15th, so that the commission can receive its discharge from the Legislature in due form with the hearty thanks of the Legislature and the people that they are sure to so abundantly deserve. The commissioners here were, Hon. Ashley Horne, Clayton, chairman; W. E. Springer, Wilmington, secretary; J. A. Long, Roxboro; W. L. Parsons, Rockingham; Gen. J. S. Carr, Durham. Commissioners unable to be here were A. S. Rascoe, Bertie, and J. Elwood Cox, High point.

A charter is issued for The Red Shale Brick Co., Asheville, capital $25,000 authorized and $5,000 subscribed by J. W. Rutherford, Arthur Penland, W. A. Reynolds, J. R. Goode and J. N. Jarrett.

Why is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth but do dissolve in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic The Standard for 20 years. 50

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress. March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates, or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Thursday, October 17, 1912.

Buy it in Wilmington from the merchants you know.

Lots of men haven't been called liars because they are slick enough not to get caught.

Most men will deny it but it is always safer to wait and see what an impartial investigation will disclose.

The Republicans are now making an appeal to the farmers for votes. The farmers probably know that the Republican party is the farmers' friend every four years when votes are needed.

Red dusting caps are said to be fashionable for girls, but the languid interest of the girls in dusting is about the same as that of their brothers in getting out of a warm bed to make the fire.

A windy politician appears big on the stump for the same reason that a balloon has some size to it. Neither, however, is entitled to be considered weighty simply on account of their large supply of hot air.

Some men can give such a hot chase to an office that the crowd will fall in and follow right at his heels. After some men get an office they hold onto it with a firm grip and the crowd doesn't mind helping them to get a fresh hold.

Wilmington is a city of varied opportunities. If they were energetically and intelligently exploited like the live wires are doing with the magnificent opportunities in real estate, this city would grow as rapidly as its suburbs.

A great many Republicans are not taking an active part in the campaign for the reason that it might interfere with their future plans to rush to Taft's support if he wins, or hasten to Teddy if he wins. It is the small man who straddles the fence to watch a close race.

The Senatorial campaign started out with criminations and it is winding up with recriminations. That is precisely what we expected when the campaign opened with a broadside involving personalities. It is a good thing the campaign will soon be over, for there is every sign that skinning and reskinning is taking the place of reasons and arguments. The big questions of the day have given way to a fight over an office.

Time utilized is money saved. Time wasted is money lost. Full time at work produces results. The city administration of San Francisco saves 500 hours a day on street work by permitting the men to report where the work is to be done instead of losing time reporting at headquarters for work each day. Instead of requiring all the street hands to meet the superintendent he is require to meet the men at their work. Most men lose too much time in getting ready to go to work.

A good illustration of free trade for special interests is furnished by the Republican plan of putting hides on the free list. They wanted free trade in hides for the benefit of shoe manufacturers whose finished products remained on the protected list. While the Shoe Trust is helped to get its hides free of duty and the government gets no revenue, the shoe wearers go right on wearing protected shoes at higher prices. The consumers of free hides are the manufacturers and the consumers of protected shoes are the people. This is an instance in which the free list is not long enough to reach the people. Free raw material for protected manufacturers means a double benefit for them. In the meantime the producers of raw materials are left to suck their thumbs.

PREPARING FOR CANAL TRADE

The Star long ago suggested co-operation between Southern ports and interior cities in the matter of securing the South's share of the greater commerce that inevitably must follow the opening of the Panama canal next year. Not specially being a maratime people, our ports are rather slow in preparing for canal traffic, and most of them doubtless will see the world's traffic passing by our ports before we properly appreciate what we can do to build up a great commerce for the South.

What applies to the South also applies in a large measure to the entire United States, for even our greatest ports do not seem to realize just what the trade will expect from them and are slow to grasp the immense importance of the fact that the completion of the canal will bring about a new routing of the world's commerce. We will not only need greater port facilities, but more American-owned ships, to transport our ocean traffic.

In view of the South's interest in the new commercial awakening The Star thinks well of Atlanta's proposition for Southern cities to "unite in a campaign to secure the rich export trade which will follow the opening of the Panama canal." The foreign trade committee of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce has taken up this matter, and is preparing to call a commercial convention to be held in the Georgia city during the latter part of next month. The Atlanta Chamber will invite all commercial bodies to send representatives to the conference, and it is hoped Wilmington will get in touch with the movement. The Atlanta Journal says of the movement:

"Such a conference could accomplish a vast deal toward devising practical means for turning the canal's opportunities to definite account. It is recognized that the opening of the canal will be one of the greatest commercial events in the world's history and that it will mark the beginning of a new era for the Southern States. But whether the South gets its share of the new trade will depend almost entirely upon the vigor and the system with which our merchants and manufacturers set out to seize their proffered fortune. Certain it is that unless they study the peculiar trade conditions of Central and South America and prepare to meet the needs and demands of those countries, they will find the canal not a benefit but a disadvantage.

"The Chamber of Commerce committee suggests, in addition to the convention, that some time next January a delegation of representative Southern business men make a cruise about the Southern continent, touching at the most important ports and informing themselves first-hand of trade conditions there. Such an enterprise would prove especially fruitful and would lead, no doubt, to the establishment of connections that would be profitable through long years to come. The essential fact is that if the South is really to reap the benefits which the canal will make possible, it must make ready for the new conditions to which the opening of the canal will give rise. How important is such preparation is shown by the fact that every European government is instructing its consular and diplomatic agents to report on every aspect of South and Central American markets.

"The proposed convention could study this and divers other phases of the canal trade question. Mr. John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, who is perhaps more thoroughly informed than any other man of the day concerning the commerce of the Latin republics, has consented to come to Atlanta and make an address in the event the conference is held. His address alone would well be worth a trip by any one who is interested in the development of his own and his community's trade."

The Journal is quite right. Our business men in the South are not quite sure what is expected of them and as to what they can do. They can better ascertain the South's commercial opportunities by getting together in a campaign of information and agitation. Such a conference as is to be held in Atlanta will greatly broaden our views and make up appreciate the value of the Isthmian waterway to all our ports.

MEAT EATING CHEAPER ABROAD

The high prices of meats have been one of the most serious burdens to families in all parts of this country and in sections which do not produce at least a portion of their meat supply the drain has been exceedingly severe. The American packers have been blamed for high prices because of their arbitrary control of the markets, but they have put it on an alleged shortage of cattle on the hoof. Later they asserted that meats are higher in London than in New York.

The campaign has served to disprove the latter assertion, as the Democratic "Tariff Chamber of Horrors" in New York clearly has demonstrated by its exhibit. Quotations obtained by the Chamber in New York and London on the same day, show that American meats in the great English city are sold at from 25 to 40 per cent cheaper than in New York.

In London the price of prime roast beef was 13 cents while the price in New York was 24 cents, nearly twice as great. Brisket sold in London at 11 cents and in New York at 18 to 25 cents. In London the price of sirloin steak was 13 cents, and in New York 28 to 30 cents. Porterhouse steak sold in London at 24 cents and in the American city at 32 cents. London got its round steak at 17 cents, while New York had to pay 22 to 26 cents. The New York World makes a note of the differences between what we pay for meats in the United States and what is paid in England for beef and meats exported from America, and adds this:

"When London consumers were paying 24 cents a pound for chickens, New York consumers were paying 25 to 30 cents. When a leg of lamb could be had there for 13 to 17 cents a pound, it was costing here 16 to 20 cents. With veal at 15 cents, best eggs at 36 cents, best butter at 32 cents and granulated sugar at 3 cents there, they were costing here, respectively, 18 to 24 cents, 43 to 49 cents, 35 to 5 1-2 cents. This is the way the market-basket fares here and there. The money that would fill it with these necessaries of life in London would little more than half fill it in New York. This is not the difference between pauper labor and high-priced labor, as is proved in the case of American meat. It is the difference between a free-food market and a market taxed to protect and fatten combinations in meat and other food productions."

The truth is, free competition between American meats and refrigerator meats from South America is the only thing that saves London. Hundreds of refrigerator ships, fitted out specially for the South American meat trade, keep the great London market well supplied, but that is where the British public has the advantage of us. The Republican tariff shuts out the fine meats of South America so there is no need of refrigerator ships as a part of the American merchant marine.

WOMEN'S WORK FOR WILSON

The ladies all over the country are deeply interested in the election of Wilson and Marshall, and it is specially well that householders should be keenly concerned in the great fight which the Democratic party is making for the heavily-burdened consumers of this country. The kitchen tax is something fierce, and as American women are more intimately acquainted with the hardships imposed in keeping the table supplied, they are not only well posted but very earnest in recognizing the necessity for relief.

In the larger cities of this country the high cost of living is acutely felt, and the women have founded leagues to do effective campaign work for the Democratic nominees. One of Governor Wilson's slogans is, "cut the cost of living" and in that particular he gets next to all who are not millionaires. Baltimore has a "Woman's Wilson League" and it has headquarters at 1212 Fidelity, from which the ladies have carried on a vigorous campaign.

The Baltimore ladies have made effective use of Wilson and Marshall stamps or stickers, which are used on letters and mail packages similar to Red Cross seals. As an indication that the ladies of Wilmington also are deeply interested in women's work in this campaign, Miss M. D. Cronly recently noticed a newspaper article referring to the campaign stamps. She immediately clipped it and sent it to the Baltimore Sun making inquiry as to how the stamps could be secured. The Sunpaper people wrote her that they sell at one cent a piece and that they may be secured from the Women's Wilson League whose address appears above.

The women's leagues have not only done a good work in sending out campaign matter but have added considerably to the campaign fund by selling stamps as well as broadcasting them all over the country. Miss Cronly sends The Star three of the stamps and they bear pictures of Wilson and Marshall, while around the circle is "Win With Wilson," "Cut High Cost of Living." We are sure the one matter of the cost of living is sufficient to make most of us intensely desire to "Win With Wilson."

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT.

We heartily concur with Judge Frank Carter, in his position with reference to a special term of court for New Hanover county in December. If there be one thing upon which the lawyers seem agreed, it is that we need more courts, more districts and more judges, therefore, we cannot believe that with this opportunity of at least approaching a clearance of the docket, the great majority of attorneys of New Hanover will object to this opportunity for at least disposing of some cases that have been on the docket from time almost immemorial. We know nothing of differences that seem to have arisen between Judge Carter and the Board of County Commissioners, but we believe that Judge Carter is entirely within his rights in asking for the special term and that he is acting with all due consideration for the taxpayers of New Hanover county.

The physician who attended the late Mikado of Japan still ignores the demand to follow General Nogi's example and commit suicide so he can join his sovereign in immortality. The doctor must be of the opinion that the spirit of the Mikado will not be at all lonesome so long as the spirit of the brave Nogi is ever with him. Therefore, for the doctor to commit suicide might be a reflection on General Nogi in the presumption that he is not making an acceptable companion to the Mikado in the spirit world.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Doubtless Joe Wood was so disconsolate last night that had there been a Charleston waffle handy he would have swallowed it and ended his wrecked life.—Columbia State.

Isn't it odd that the identical sewing machines which cost hard working women $25 in this country should be sold in Mexico for $10 less? Perhaps if the tariff were taken off, American women might fare as well as Mexican women at the hands of the sewing machine trust. It's worth trying, anyhow, don't you think? One of a thousand reasons why Wilson should be elected.—Raleigh Times.

In the case of a bullet wound the course of safety requires that the victim be hurried to a hospital. Valuable time was lost and serious consequences might have been bred by Col. Roosevelt's course in avoiding prompt attention and to undergoing an exertion that was not at all necessary. We do not share the opinion of many, however, that it was a display of bravado on his part. It was simply the Roosevelt way of doing things.—Charlotte Observer.

When Debs, Socialist candidate for President, comes for a speech in Greensboro tonight, it will mark the appearance here of the second Presidential candidate of the 1912 campaign. Mr. Debs is a man who has been honored several times by the Socialist party as its leader, and however much the great part of the people of this section may differ from his political views, he is entitled to a hearing. While the early dispatches from Milwaukee stated that the man who attempted to assassinate Col. Roosevelt was a Socialist, later reports are that the political faith of the man is unknown. Whatever his political views may be, we do not believe the Socialist party is in any way responsible for the act.—Greensboro News, Oct. 16.

George R. Atwood, secretary of the American Association of Commerce and Trade in Berlin, Germany, is visiting this country and recently stated that one great reason why Americans have not taken interest in German trade is that they have not been interested in South America and have not realized that they have to fight Germans and Englishmen there as well as in European trade. He believes that interest in Germany as a field for American products is awakening and he predicts a big influx of American automobiles next year, which has already been introduced, for the German cars are not of as high grade and while the Germans are suspicious of foreign competitors, they are scientific enough to buy the best product when they see it.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Our campaigns have come to a pretty pass when the wife of a Presidential candidate is called to account for her expenditures for her Autumn wardrobe. The enemies of Democracy not having been able to find any serious flaw in Woodrow Wilson's record allege that Mrs. Wilson was guilty of extravagance in a recent shopping expedition in Philadelphia. Mrs. Wilson confounds them by furnishing a list of the articles purchased, and showing that she spent a very moderate sum for her Winter outfit. If this sort of thing continues, we will soon have Senate committees investigating the housekeeping expenses of candidates' wives. The principle of publicity is being subjected to a dangerous strain when it is stretched to such an extent as this. If we will not let the ladies go into politics, politics must keep away from the ladies.—Baltimore Sun.

NEED MORE BELIEF.

President of Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ Censures Ministers.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—Censure for ministers of the Christian Church who, the speaker said, need more abundant belief and faith in the efficacy of prayers, was expressed today in the president's address to the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ, meeting here in connection with the international convention of the church. President R. A. Long, of Kansas, was unable to attend and the address was presented by Judge J. N. Haymaker, of Wichita, Kan.

The Brotherhood adopted resolutions deploring the assault on former President Roosevelt and expressing the hope that the former chief executive would speedily recover.

The president's address set forth the opinion that the ministers of the church need to be "vitalized and quickened" and asserted it is largely due to the ministers' attitude that laymen do not realize their responsibility.

The four years' activity of the Brotherhood, according to the report of the secretary, E. E. Elliott, of Kansas City, have been responsible directly for the sending of 208 missionaries to the foreign field. There are 242 affiliated local chapters of the Brotherhood and 592 men's organizations in 1,000 Christian churches inspired by the Brotherhood.

The Brotherhood meeting divided interest today with the sessions of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, which held three sessions at the First Regiment armory, attended by thousands.

Conditions in various home and foreign fields were presented by numerous speakers.

Mrs. M. E. Harlan, of Indianapolis, corresponding secretary of the board, reported a total membership of 37,621 while the treasurer's report showed disbursements for the year ending October 1st, of nearly $363,000.

CONSIDER ROUTINE MATTERS

Regular Weekly Meeting Yesterday Morning of the City Council—Several Matters of Minor Interest Brought Up

Aside from the agreement as to a basis of settlement of the controversy with the Wilmington Sewerage Company, as told in another column of today's paper, the City Council in regular weekly session yesterday morning had but very little to claim its attention. It was evident that Council considered its real work of the morning to be in wrestling with the sewerage proposition and as an engagement had been made with the sewerage people for 10 o'clock there was no disposition to take up any question the discussion of which might last for considerable time.

Mayor Joseph D. Smith presided and in attendance were all members except Councilman P. Q. Moore, who was out of the city. Present also were City Attorney Herbert McClammy, Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschau, Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer; Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health. Councilman B. C. Moore called the attention of Council to the accident which befell Dr. F. W. Avant, colored, Monday night, when he fell through the bridge over the railroad tracks at Fifth street, which had been closed for repairs. Dr. Avant has been quoted as saying that he was solely to blame as he observed the danger lights that had been put up to warn the public. Councilman Moore suggested that if both ends of the bridge were closed up, something like a fence being built, there would be no chance of a repetition of the accident. No action was taken on the suggestion.

Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt called attention to defective plumbing in a number of houses in the city and declared that the occupants of the buildings were living in constant danger. Some of the gas pipes, he said, are defective as well as some sewer pipes. He said that at a place on Fifth street there is a cess pool under the house. The attention of both the owners and occupants had been called to the existing conditions. Dr. Nesbitt said that the owners did not fail to charge sufficient rent for a good house, even though they know that the plumbing is defective. He said that the relief that is desired could be obtained from an enforcement of one of the sanitary ordinances that has been drafted and is to be adopted when the batch of other new ordinances are adopted. The city attorney suggested that the superintendent of health could bring indictments against the owners of such places for nuisance. The superintendent stated later that such a course would be followed.

It was decided to meet every afternoon at 5 o'clock to take up the new ordinances that have been prepared by the assistant city attorney. The first meeting was scheduled for yesterday afternoon.

City Attorney McClammy called attention to the ruling of Council with regard to obstruction of the sidewalks and streets. He said that this should be enforced and enforced against all or Council should let it be known that no effort will be made to enforce the law. He said that the non-enforcement of the law had occasioned considerable comment and he urged that it was time the Council was doing something. He reported particularly on the building of the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Co., which has been constructed at the foot of Harnett street. The Seaboard Air Line Railway recently requested that this warehouse be removed as it is in the street and the matter was referred to City Attorney McClammy, who with the Mayor and one or two members of Council made an investigation. Mr. McClammy remarked that one of the greatest assets of the municipality is its wharves and they should not be given up to private use.

Mayor Smith said that he had promised Mr. Smallbones, of the Wilmington Compress & Warehouse Co., to give him a hearing when the question is considered, therefore he would ask that no action be taken until next meeting. This action was later taken by the Council.

Councilman Tiencken suggested that the company had probably been given some assurance from the old board of aldermen that reasonable notice would be given if the city decided to have them vacate the street and said that he thought it a good solution of the matter to allow the company to continue on the street until Spring, as it is now in the midst of the cotton season, and that at the next Legislature secure authority for renting the public wharves or docks. City Attorney McClammy did not take kindly to this suggestion, stating that the company had had notice from the day it put the building on the street. Mayor Smith, who is in favor of making the company remove the building, started to say something about being a relation of some of those connected with the company, but that he would not let this enter into his decision in the matter, when the city attorney remarked that he was considering the matter purely from a cold-blooded standpoint. Councilman Tiencken asked what this cold-bloodedness amounts to, that a cold-blooded notice was given some months ago to a person to remove an iron railing within ten days from the date and that the railing is still an obstruction on the sidewalk. City Attorney McClammy was busy with something else at the time and did not hear the question, hence he did not answer. Councilmen Tiencken, Perdew and B. C. Moore, a majority of Council, are all favorable to allowing the building to remain until Spring and could have acted yesterday but in deference to the wishes of the Mayor, who had promised the officers of the warehouse and compress company a hearing, action was deferred until the next regular meeting.

There was no other business before Council except the sewerage matter which was taken up shortly after 10 o'clock.

PROTECTION OF THE FISH

Legislative Committee of Fisheries' Association Met in Newbern Yesterday—C. Ed Taylor, Esq., Is Chairman.

C. Ed Taylor, Esq., a prominent attorney of the Southport bar, spent last night in this city on his way home from Newbern, where yesterday he attended an important meeting of the legislative committee of the Fisheries' Association of North Carolina, which was formed at a largely attended meeting last December. The purpose of the association is to protect and conserve the fishing industry and the purpose of the meeting of the committee yesterday was to outline some needed legislation to be recommended to the association, which will convene some time within the next few weeks.

This was the first meeting of the committee. Mr. Taylor was elected chairman and Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, of Chapel Hill, State Geologist, was named as secretary. Other members present were R. A. Nunn and Mr. Ives, of Craven county; Mr. Markham, of Elizabeth City, and Mr. Wood, also of Pasquotank county.

Two sessions of the committee were held and after a free and full discussion it was decided to recommend to the association that the Legislature be asked to pass practically the same law as recommended at the last Legislature by the committee named at the 1909 Legislature to inquire into the fish industry. The bill recommended by the committee of the General Assembly was amended and finally the entire measure was killed. The committee made an exhaustive study relative to the fish industry, visiting many of the towns in this section, including Wilmington and Southport, where the testimony of fishermen was heard and taken down by a stenographer for future use. The legislative committee of the Fisheries' Association consider that the bill proposed at the last Legislature was in the main a good one and with few changes will recommend to the association that its passage be urged at the forthcoming Legislature.

The main idea of the General Assembly committee and the committee of the association is that the fishing industry should be placed in the direct charge of a Fish Commission to be composed of a State Fish Commissioner, the State Geological Board and the State Geologist. The idea would be to give the commission much power and the Fish Commissioner would also have considerable power in dealing with questions that arise in each community where fishing is carried on to any extent. The State Geological Board is in charge of the forest, mines, etc., of the State and it could very easily take the fishing industry without any additional expense. In a way it has charge of the fishing industry now. However, it has absolutely no power in securing an observance of the existing laws and its work counts for naught. One of the principal works of the commission would be to secure an enforcement of the present laws as well as to make new regulations for the guidance and observance of the fishermen.

Mr. Taylor said that there is no question of the fact that the fishing industry in North Carolina, which is one of the State's chief resources, is rapidly going down and that this is due mainly to a lack of protection to the fish and non-enforcement of the present laws. One of the chief reasons for this is that there is no protection for the small fish, which are caught by the millions each season and sold by the bushel. These fish, if left for another year, would be 10 or 12 times the size they are when offered on the market.

The fishing industry is one of importance in Brunswick county and in New Hanover as well as in a number of counties above here, and Mr. Taylor hopes that the relief asked for will be granted by the next Legislature.

SPECIAL TERM OF COURT HERE

Judge Frank Carter Replies Caustically to Seeming Objection on Part Of County Commissioners—The Situation

Under a special delivery stamp The Star yesterday evening received from Jacksonville, Onslow county, where he is presiding at this week's term of court, the following letter from Judge Frank Carter, with reference to the seeming objection of the Board of County Commissioners and several of the attorneys to the proposed special term of New Hanover Superior Court to be held here beginning October 16th.

"To The Editor: I note the action of the Board of County Commissioners of New Hanover county, foreshadowing probable opposition on the part of said board to the holding of the proposed special term of court on 16th of December.

"Believing the judicial officers are as fully accountable to the people for their actions as officers in the other departments of government, I crave space in your columns for a public statement of the grounds upon which I certified the need for a special term.

"First, as to the criminal docket: The Holly arson case has been pending for over two years, the so-called fish trust cases for over a year, the King homicide case for about six months and the Croom homicide case since the last term. The most sanguine person could not expect those cases to be disposed of in less than one week. In addition, there are still several liquor cases and other cases of an inferior character which have been pending for from one to three or four terms.

"The congestion of the civil docket is notorious. As I recall, there was not a single contested case tried at the last term that had been pending for less than two years. The cases tried ranged in antiquity from fourteen years down. However, as was carefully explained in open court at the time action was taken upon this matter, the sole reason for including civil business in the certificate was to provide against possible loss of time while the sheriff was summoning the venire in the Holly case and the grand jury was investigating the new bills in the fish trust cases. It was further explained that the term would not be continued a day longer than was necessary to dispose of the criminal business left over from former terms. I felt that there was a measure of obligation upon me to rid the docket of these old criminal cases instead of passing them over to my successor, and in order to find the time to do so, it was necessary for me to secure my release from a promise already made to hold a special civil term in Onslow, to begin on the same day.

"No intelligent person at all familiar with the civil and criminal dockets of New Hanover county believes that the accumulations of business could be disposed of in two months of extra court, much less two weeks. In fact, I do not understand the Commissioners to deny the need for the special term; their chief concern seems to be that the work shall not encroach upon the holiday season. Nor do I understand that their solicitude in this connection is for me, whose work at the proposed term would be continuous and 300 miles from my home, but rather for the local bar, who are at home and who would work by relays—two to four or five at a time.

"The Commissioners are mildly critical of my action in proceeding independently of them in this matter. While the statute is alternative—the application of the Commissioners is only one of three ways in which the need for a special term is to be made known to the Governor—it would never have occurred to me to act apart from them except for the clear conviction I had that I could expect no co-operation from the chairman of the board. I am very well aware that there are a good many people in New Hanover county who are distinctly opposed to my holding another criminal term in that county and I have my excellent reasons for believing that Mr. Duncan McEachern is one of those persons. If there is any considerable number of good citizens who concur in Mr. McEachern's opposition, I shall be most happy to stand aside and ask the Governor to designate another judge to hold the extra term, but, in common fairness, this opposition ought to be made known promptly so that, if ruled out of New Hanover, I can hold the extra court in Onslow, according to my original engagement.

"It will be equally my pleasure to continue my work upon the criminal docket of New Hanover county at the proposed special term, or discontinue it, as the good people of that county may prefer.

"FRANK CARTER."

THE NEW HOTEL PROJECT

Mr. C. Gresham, Well-Known Hotel Man, May Become Interested

There is a likelihood that Mr. C. Gresham, of Charlotte, the well-known hotel man, will become interested with Messrs. T. A. Green, of Spartanburg; Mr. W. C. Petty, of Charlotte, and Mr. J. P. Sanders, of Greensboro, in the erection of the proposed new hotel for Wilmington. It is proposed by Messrs. Green, Petty and Sanders to erect the hotel at the southeast corner of Front and Walnut streets, property for which was purchased some months ago. Mr. Green was here Tuesday and he was accompanied by Mr. Gresham. It is understood that Mr. Gresham was favorably impressed with the possibilities of another commercial hotel in this city. While here Mr. Green took up the matter of removing the buildings that are on the property and this fact has led many to believe that work on the hotel may be started within a few months.

THE DEAL MAY BE CLOSED

Council and Representatives of Wilmington Sewerage Co., Agree Upon Basis of Settlement. Deed May Pass Today.

Agreement on the basis of settlement of the controversy between the Wilmington Sewerage Company and the City Council in connection with the transfer of the plant to the municipality having been reached at the regular meeting of the Council yesterday morning and the representatives of the sewerage company having occupied the afternoon in an effort to arrange the details in accordance therewith, it is not at all improbable that the deed of conveyance of the plant will be passed this morning and filed for record at the Court House. The city will then be in possession of the plant in fact as well as in name.

The main point at issue between the sewerage company and the city was the size of the bond that the sewerage company should give to protect the city against any possible suits for tort that may be started within 60 days from the date the deed is filed for record. The city had held out for $10,000 bond and the sewerage company, until Tuesday, had not been willing to give more than $2,500 bond. Tuesday it increased it to $5,000. This is the way the two parties to the transaction stood yesterday morning when the matter was taken up. Finally a compromise was affected by which the city agrees to accept a bond or cash deposit of $7,500 to protect the municipality for 60 days, provided the company settled with Mr. S. Behrends a suit he has threatened against the company and pays to Iredell Meares, Esq., the balance of the fee due him, he having served notice on the city that he would expect his fee to be held out of the amount of the first payment. The matter of Mr. Meares' fee did not enter the controversy until yesterday and rather complicated matters or a few minutes, but representatives of the sewerage company assured the Council that an agreement had been reached with Mr. Meares as to the amount of his fee and that the same would be paid.

The sewerage matter was taken up at 10 o'clock. Representing the sewerage company there were present Hon. John D. Bellamy, local attorney; Mr. W. B. D. Smith, of Philadelphia, and Mr. W. E. Merritt, superintendent of the plant, and Mr. Congers was present representing the West End Trust Co., trustee for the bonds that are being issued by the sewerage company to cover the $100,000 the city will owe on the plant. Hon. John D. Bellamy said that in behalf of the sewerage company he had tendered to the Mayor Tuesday a deed for the property, subject to the mortgage, $145,000 worth of cancelled bonds of the first issue by the company and offered to give security in double the amount for the $500 bond that is missing, and to place on deposit $5,000 to protect the city from any suits on tort that may be started within 60 days from the date of the transfer of the plant. This, he said, he had been led to believe would be declined.

Mr. Bellamy said that the company contends, and he thinks justly so, that the contract with the city does not contain any provision or intimation of a deposit of any sum, but that had the contract called for it the company would doubtless have arranged it. He said that when the sewerage representatives were here a few days ago they were given the first intimation that a deposit would be required. At first they would not consent to make a deposit, but later agreed to $2,500. Mr. Bellamy said that the sewerage representatives came here Wednesday with instructions to agree only to adeposit of $2,500, but he had persuaded them to increase the amount to $5,000.

He took the position that the company was under no obligations to give any indemnity bond or place any sum on deposit, because, first, nothing to this effect was stated in the contract, second, that in taking over the plant, as the city claims that it has, it was a waiver of any claim it might make in this regard. When something was said to the effect that the city is not in possession of the plant, Mr. Bellamy read the following letter:

"Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 7, 1912.

"The Wilmington Sewerage Co., City.

"Gentlemen:—I have your application for permit to make connection on Sixth street, between Market and Dock streets, and replying to the same desire to state that the application is declined for the reason that the Wilmington Sewerage Company's plant has been turned over to the city.

"The city will do what work on Sixth street, between Market and Dock, that is necessary to be done.

"Yours very truly,

"JOSEPH D. SMITH,
"Mayor."

Mr. Bellamy said that there is no lien on the plant and no suits pending or threatened, save the one of Mr. S. Behrends, which, he said, would be adjusted. In conclusion, Mr. Bellamy insisted as attorney for the sewerage company and as a citizen of the city that the sewerage question be settled upon the basis proposed by the company.

City Attorney Herbert McClammy said that the tender by the sewerage company was declined. He then tendered to the company a cashiers' check on the Southern National Bank for $30,000 as the first payment on the plant, and demanded of the company that it turn over all outstanding bonds cancelled, that the deed be executed in accordance with the agreement and that bond of $10,000 be given to indemnify the city in the event of any suits being started against the corporation within 60 days from date of transfer. He said that the city did not consider the size of the bond at all unreasonable.

Acting for the sewerage company Mr. Bellamy declined the tender by the city.

Councilman Tiencken asked Mr. Bellamy why his company would object to placing the $10,000 on deposit at 4 per cent. interest for 60 days pending compliance with the statute. Mr. Bellamy said that it was because the amount required was unreasonable and, too, the company would lose 2 per cent. on the $10,000 during this period. Besides, the company desired all of the amount at one time to distribute among the bondholders, as had been promised them.

Councilman Perdew said that he was exceedingly anxious to have the matter settled and asked Assistant City Attorney Peschau to express his views. Mr. Peschau refuted the intimation that Council was trying to place obstacles in the way of a consummation of the deal and declared that the charge with equal or more force could be made against the sewerage company. He said that in conferences the question of amount of bond had been mooted. It cannot be determined until the end of the 60 days just what is against the company and Mr. Peschau said that the officers of the company did not even know, did not have any idea, as to what might be brought against the company. He said that they did not even know of the suit threatened by Mr. Behrends until told by a member of Council. Mr. Peschau said that he had an intimation that certain private sewers that were working all right until the Wilmington Sewerage Company entered the territory, are now out of commission. Suits might arise from this condition. He said that he thought that the refusal of the company to give the bond was an indication that the officers of the company had some apprehension of suits.

Mr. Peschau was interrupted in his remarks by the service of notice on the Council through the Mayor as follows:

"To the Council of the City of Wilmington, the following notice is served on the city:

"Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 16, 1912.

"Geo. T. Meares, Wilmington, N. C.

"See Smith. My fee must be paid. Have it so arranged, otherwise notify city hold up matter and I will come at once if necessary. Take legal steps. Don't like not being notified of his coming. Answer Mount Airy.

"IREDELL MEARES."

The notice was handed to Mayor Smith by Geo. F. Meares, Esq. It was learned that the amount yet due Mr. Meares by the sewerage company is $4,500. The message from Mr. Meares came somewhat as a surprise and the proceedings were stopped for about 20 minutes while several conferences were being held. Then Mr. Peschau resumed his remarks on the matter.

When he finished Mr. Bellamy said that he had just been informed Mr. Congers had agreed with Councilman Tiencken to settle the Behrends case and place $6,500 on deposit for the city in case of suits, this in the nature of a compromise. The Council remained firm. Then Mr. Congers acceded to the demand of the city attorney and said that $7,500 would be placed on deposit. It was the understanding of Council that the Wilmington Sewerage Company was to settle with Mr. Meares and with Mr. Behrends before the actual transfer would take place. Mr. Bellamy said he wanted it distinctly understood that the fee of Mr. Meares did not enter into this matter at all, but that he had been informed it had been settled. Mr. Bellamy agreed to enter a retraxit in the suits that were started some weeks ago by the sewerage company against the city of Wilmington and members of the Council.

Adjournment was then taken and a meeting was to have been held at 3 o'clock to complete the transaction with the sewerage company, but at that hour the sewerage company was not ready. Nor was it ready at 4 o'clock nor at 5 o'clock, so final action will be taken today, it is thought. It was stated that the reason the company was not ready yesterday was that the $1,000 bond as security for the $500 outstanding bond could not be arranged until today.

Geo. F. Meares, Esq., associated with him A. G. Ricaud, Esq., to take up with the sewerage company the question of the fee due his father. The representatives of the company finally agreed to give a check for $4,500. Mr. Meares instituted attachment proceedings and unless the check is forth coming the papers will be served.

It is understood that during the afternoon the sewerage company practically agreed upon a settlement with Mr. Behrends. The grounds for his suit was the contention that the company made a bad connection near his house and tried to force the sewage by his place up the hill, the result being, he claims, that several members of his family were taken ill.

During the afternoon Mr. Bellamy entered a retraxit in the cases instituted by the company against the city.

The hope is general that today will see the end of the sewerage controversy that has been hanging fire for four years or more.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. Robert Blankenship, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything.

"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. Gaston Blondeau, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles.

"I got two bottles of Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman.

"I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. Mattie Hodnot, Box 406, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself.

"I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. Mary A. Hockenberry, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed.

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it.

"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. Blayton, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

Why don't you try this reliable remedy?

QUIET HOME WEDDING OF INTEREST YESTERDAY.

Of interest to a wide circle of friends in Wilmington and elsewhere throughout the State was the marriage at 6 o'clock last evening of Rev. John Council Wooten, pastor of Grace Methodist church, and Miss Lydia Allison Yates, which was celebrated at the home of the bride's father, Mr. C. W. Yates, No. 110 North Fourth street. It was a very quiet home wedding, there being only members of the immediate families and a few intimate friends in attendance. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, presiding elder of the Wilmington District of the M. E. Church, South. There were no attendants, save little Miss Rena Yates, niece of the bride, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Yates, who was flower girl. The bride was becomingly attired in plain white charmeuse and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooten left on the evening train and will visit relatives and friends in different parts of this State and upon their return will be at home to their friends in this city, where both are held in the highest esteem and are greatly admired in a wide circle of friends. Mr. Wooten is regarded as one of the ablest ministers in the conference and he is to be congratulated upon winning the heart and hand of such an accomplished young lady.

SAVED HIS SON.

From Constitutional Decline.

So many cases like this are coming to our attention for the benefit of fathers and mothers of weak, sickly, ailing children in this vicinity we publish the following letter:—Mr. Richard Rush, of Columbus, Ind., says: "I believe I am indebted to the valuable medicinal properties of Vinol for the health of my little son Dale. He had a severe attack of whooping cough and measles, which affected his lungs and general constitution. We tried several other remedies without benefit, then commenced using Vinol and I take pleasure in acknowledging my confidence in its restorative and reconstructive virtues, for my little son is the picture of health now, all due to the use of Vinol.'

This is because the child needed the strengthening cod liver elements and the tonic iron that Vinol contains. No oil, delicious taste. Children love it. We give back your money if Vinol does not do all we claim. Robt. R. Bellamy, Wilmington, N. C.

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Prayer for Judgment Suspended In Everitt Case—Other Matters

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning judgment was pronounced in the case against "Bob" Everitt, a white man, charged with larceny by trick, which was heard at Tuesday's session. The defendant was found guilty and fined $50 and costs. This was then changed so that upon payment of costs prayer for judgment was continued until October 16th, 1913, one year from yesterday, when, if the defendant appears and shows a record of good behavior he will be discharged.

Lucy Foy, colored, was charged with stealing a ham from Mrs. Ida Jones, in whose home she was a servant, and was given three months on the county roads. William Waddell, colored, to whom the woman sold the ham for 25 cents, was charged with receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen. He was given six months on the roads.

A case against Dav Nixon, colored, charged with larceny of a case of lard from McNair & Pearsall, was continued until today. John Robinson, colored, was required to pay a fine of $5 and costs for violating the driving ordinance.

Rufus Howe, William Moore and Sam Brown, all colored, appeared to answer a charge of gambling. William Moore took the stand and denied that he had been gambling. He was not only found guilty but sentenced to three months on the county roads, while the other two defendants, who did not enter any denial, got off upon payment of $5 and costs.

Cases against 30 or 35 women of the underworld, charged with vagrancy, are set for trial this morning. They were arrested Sunday night in the regular monthly raid by the police on warrants from the Recorder.

BASKETBALL LAST NIGHT.

Teams of Class B League Begin Series for Championship.

The teams in Class B League of the Boys' Brigade, opened up their series of games for the championship of this league last night and two very fast games were played, which resulted in victories for the teams of Cameron over that of Gerdes by a score of 13 to 7, while the team of Walton won over the team of Fowler by a score of 17 to 6. Both games were well played, though at times roughness was shown by individual players. The goal throwing of Ellis for the Waltons, and the guarding of Register for Gerdes were features as was also the fast work of Brittain and Kelly Smith.

The next games in this league will be played next Wednesday night.

The league of Company C also played a series of games during the afternoon and resulted in Fergus winning over Montgomery by a score of 24 to 19, while Register won over Palmgren to the tune of 17 to 11. The good work of Fergus, Palmgren, Montgomery, Register and Mac. Griffith were features. These little fellows play the game fast and scientifically and it is very interesting to watch them in their handling of the ball passing and throwing which is patterned after the older players.

The first games in the Friday night league will be played tomorrow night when the Y. M. C. A. Juniors will be pitted against Company A and Company B against the Y. M. C. A. Seniors, and the team of Irving, the Cardinals, against that of Burnett. The Y. M. C. A. Juniors and Company A will play the first game beginning at 8 o'clock; Company B and the Y. M. C. A. Seniors will follow during the intermission, and Irving and Burnett will play the third game. No admission will be charged and the public is invited to witness these games.

Return From Chapel Hill.

Louis Goodman and Louis J. Poisson, Esqs., returned yesterday from Chapel Hill, where they went to appear for the four young men charged with hazing of the young man Rand at the University a few weeks ago. Walter P. Stacy, Esq., also of counsel for the defense, went on the High Point, where he will spend a day or two before returning. Leonard B. Merriman, of this city, is one of the defendants. He and his father, Mr. L. J. Merriman, also returned yesterday. As previously stated in the telegraphic columns of The Star, the trial of the case has been continued.

Selling Whiskey Charged

Walter Sneeden, who was indicted at a recent term of Superior Court on a charge of violating the prohibition law, was arrested in this city on a capias yesterday morning. Sneeden was arrested by Patrolman W. F. Craig, who found him in the vicinity of Eighth and Castle streets. The defendant was turned over to Sheriff Cowan. He gave $500 bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior Court.

..Theatrical..

The Academy will indeed make a big and merry offering Saturday, matinee and night, when "The Winning Widow", the big music show that captured the hearts of Wilmington theatre-goers last season, returns. The company and production this season are receiving the most lavish of praise and the Charlotte press Tuesday added to its laurels. The Charlotte Observer gave the attraction high praise, and the Charlotte Chronicle had this to say:

"'The Winning Widow', correctly described as a comedy with music and girls, kept two houses entertained at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and last night. Lovely Marie Greene in the title role presented a handsome figure in her several striking costumes, abbreviated and otherwise, and possessed a good enough voice and just that vivacity that was necessary to make the most of her part. Mul Clark and Ben Turbett in the comedy roles were pleasantly remembered by the larger part of both audiences and added to the reputation they already enjoyed as 'Dutch' and 'Irish'. The other characters and the chorus were on to their jobs and all in all the company made the most of a play that is fast moving and spicy—spicy even to raciness in some places. There was variety in the costumes and particular pains had been taken to waste no material in many of them."

The scenery of "The Winning Widow", the new musical comedy produced by Max Spiegel is beautiful and it is said that the dazzling loveliness and fabulous glory of the costumes will be a revelation even in these days of utter disregard of money in staging musical comedies.

The scale of prices for the night performance will run to $1.50, but the matinee prices will be of the small type, which will, no doubt, serve to pack the Academy Saturday afternoon. For the matinee the entire lower floor will be 75 cents and the balcony will be 50 cents, but a school child will be admitted to any part of the theatre for 25 cents. Seats for both performances will go on sale at Plummer's tomorrow.

Grand Theatre

One of the real features at the Grand Theatre today will be an Italian song, illustrated with beautifully colored slides, posed by one of the leading moving picture actresses in the country. This is said to be one of the most original character songs presented on the vaudeville stage and it was this song that Mr. Chick made his reputation with in comic opera. The title of the song is, "Italian Eyes," and it is sure to please everyone.

There will be three big feature pictures for today at The Grand and one of these will be, "The New Woman and The Lion," a ludricrous Selig animal comedy. It is a great topic and the animal picture will be especially pleasing to the little folks. Another great offering today will be "A Red Man's Loyalty," a Pathe Western story. Bull Moose, an Indian guide, is accompanying Mrs. Hawkins and her little daughter, who are traveling West to join Dan Hawkins over the Broken Trail. Crossing the desert the little party is attacked by a band of savages. The picture is realistic and vivid. It is vividly realistic and pathetic at the grand finale.

But it is comedy upon which The Grand is making its reputation and after all people go to the theatre to be amused, not to cry. The third big feature is a double comedy, "The Line at Hogans," a roaring farce, and a "Ten-Karat Hero!" The latter has a town bully in its portrayal. These pictures for today have never been excelled in a moving picture house in the city and they should be seen to be appreciated.

Great Day at The Bijou

It was another great day that of yesterday at The Bijou. However, that is the same old thing, it can well be added, because The Bijou is certainly the popular joy spot of Wilmington. It is ever crowded with people; delighted folks, too, because The Bijou serves up both a fine show and a solid comfort setting. The price of admission is never raised. It always remains at 5 cents, and it should be borne in mind that the same big show is flashed on the big screen as is given at night.

Today's bill is going to be a corker. It is headed by a Pathe, and it's Pathe's best, "Passing of Gypsies." It vividly tells how a pretty Gypsy girl falls in love with a young farmer, who is a married man, and persuades him to elope with her. However, the appearance of a little child saves both from shame and others from suffering. It is well told and carries a big moral with it.

Essanay's best comedy creation, "Alkali Ike Stung" is also one of today's particular stars, and it is a howl. It is the funniest thing "Alkali Ike" has ever done as a moving picture character, and it is of wholesome type, too. This time "Ike" decides to change boarding houses and the experience he has, finally being kicked out by his old boarding house keeper, when he returns, will cause the face to be wreathed in smiles and chuckles to fill the air.

The other films are of just as fine quality and will greatly delight all.

CATARRH Coughs, Colds

Pleasant Vapor Treatment That Gives Relief in a Few Minutes.

Here's an offer that means something.

Money returned if Booth's HYOMEI doesn't give satisfaction in treatment of catarrh, coughs, colds and croup.

Thousands of wise people the country over are using the HYOMEI vapor treatment to break up a cold in the head or chest over night. Follow this advice once in the evening and again just before retiring.

Into a small bowl full of boiling water pour a scant teaspoonful of HYOMEI, cover head and bowl with a towel and breathe deep into the lungs the soothing, healing, germ killing vapor that arises.

HYOMEI is Australian Eucalyptus, an antiseptic that is used extensively by the foremost nose and throat specialists in the world, combined with other antiseptics.

A bottle of HYOMEI is 50 cents at R. R. Bellamy and druggists everywhere. A complete outfit which also includes a hard rubber pocket inhaler for $1.00.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Luther League of St. Paul's Lutheran church, will meet at the Luther Memorial building at 8:15 o'clock tonight and all members are requested to attend.

—By deed filed for record yesterday E. Y. Davis and wife transfer to Wm. Struthers, Jr., and wife, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on east side of Seventh street, 94 feet south of Walnut, 38x165 feet in size.

—F. H. Adams, a white man, a painter by trade, was arrested at Greenfield Park yesterday on a warrant charging him with larceny by trick. He gave $100 bond for appearance in the Recorder's court today. The defendant was tried before Justice Harriss on a similar charge a few days ago and found not guilty. It was alleged that he was given a check for $7 by another painter to get some beer and that he did not return with either the beer or money.

NO WORD YET

The Work on the Lower Cape Fear River Is Still Held Up

Work on the Cape Fear river at and below Wilmington, which was stopped last week by instructions from the Chief of Engineers, Washington, D. C., until the War Department could pass upon certain features of the bill authorizing expenditures for the improvement, has not yet been resumed. Major H. W. Stickle, local United States Engineer, was asked last night if the work had been resumed and he replied that it had not. He was asked if he had received anything further on the matter from the War Department and he also answered this in the negative. He did not volunteer any information whatever that he might have upon the matter, merely answering the questions that were asked him. He said that he did not have any idea as to when he would hear from the War Department. The question to be passed upon by the Department is as to whether improvements made by the railroads and corporations on local terminal facilities meet the requirements of the bill which says that the city must expend $200,000 in terminals improvements.

WILL SPEAK IN WILMINGTON

Hon. Francis D. Winston to Address Voters Here October 26th

Announcement has been made in the public press by Mr. Chas. A. Webb, chairman, and Mr. Walter E. Brock, secretary, of the State Democratic Executive Committee, that Hon. Francis D. Winston will speak in Wilmington on the night of October 26th, in the interest of the Democratic party. The former Lieutenant Governor is a splendid speaker, a fine exponent of Democratic principles and he will doubtless be heard by a large crowd on the occasion of his visit to this city. No other political speaking for Wilmington during the campaign has been announced by the Democrats.

Mr. T. B. Peirce Dead.

The sad news was received here yesterday of the death of Mr. Thos. B. Peirce, of Warsaw. He was the pioneer crate manufacturer of that section and a man greatly beloved by all who knew him. Many friends in the community learned of his death with deep regret. Mr. Peirce is survived by a widow and a number of children.

MOST INTERESTING MARRIAGE.

Miss Irene D. Risley Becomes Bride of Mr. J. W. Smith—Reception.

Last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Risley, Mr. J. W. Smith led to the hymeneal altar Miss Irene Dorothy Risley, a most charming and attractive young Wilmington lady. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Elder J. P. King, pastor of the Sixth Street Advent Christian church, at the home of the bride, No. 723 South Eighth street. The bride was attired in a beautiful and artistic traveling suit of rich tan with appropriate bodice, uniquely laced and button trimming. Her hat was elaborate and of appropriate style. The groom and his best man, Mr. J. W. Taylor, were attired in conventional black. Mrs. Pressler, of Texas, was dame of honor and was pretty in a gown of white silk.

After the ceremony and congratulations of the friends assembled the guests were led to a delicious repast. The wedding marches were skilfully rendered by Mrs. Lula Johnson. The wedding presents were numerous and very handsome.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, of this city, and is very popular in a wide circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will continue to make their home in this city where they will be warmly felicitated upon their happy union for life.

Convict Died at Hospital.

Pete Evans, colored, who was sentenced to the county roads a few weeks ago for three months for violating the prohibition law, died at the James Walker Memorial Hospital yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, whither he was taken from the convict camp when it was seen that he was ill. Notice of the death of the old man was filed at police headquarters.

LABOR RIOT CASE BEGINS

Three of the 300 Witnesses Testify At the Grabow Trial

Lake Charles, La., Oct. 16.—Only three of the 300 witnesses summoned in the Grabow labor riot case, were placed upon the stand today, the first in the taking of evidence. B. F. Havard, a log scaler for the Galloway Lumber Company, at whose plant the fight occurred, was the State's chief witness.

The riot followed a labor speech at the mill by A. L. Emerson, president of the Brotherhood of Timber Workers and one of the defendants. Havard testified that the first shot was fired by some one in the crowd about the wagon from which the union leader was speaking. Cross examination did not shake his story. He was still on the stand when court adjourned.

The attorneys for the defense sought to show in the cross-examination of Havard that the employes of the Galloway mill had been drinking and had also been expecting the coming of the union men, but the court did not allow the question except as restricted to the witness himself. He denied the question. He also denied that the mill owners were paying him a salary and expenses to hold him as a witness.

Dr. W. L. Fisher, the parish coroner, and A. Thompson, civil engineer, whose testimony was relative to a map of the scene of the riot, were the other witnesses.

Coroner Fisher described the wounds of A. L. Vincent, one of the victims of the riot, for the murder of whom Emerson and his fellow union men are on trial.

New York, Oct. 16.—John L. Gay, acting as agent of the Puerto Rico government, is in New York City today for a conference with August Belmont and other members of the Jockey Club, seeking to obtain recognition and assistance from the Jockey Club in behalf of a new race course to be constructed at San Juan. The course will have racing on every Sunday throughout the season.

GET RID OF RHEUMATISM

Rubbing with liniments, blistering the affected parts, the application of plasters, and other means of external treatment, are usually helpful in relieving the pains and aches of Rheumatism. But such treatment does not get rid of the disease, because it does not reach its source. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid acts as an irritant to the nerves, muscles and joints, and produces the inflammation and swelling, and sharp cutting pains characteristic of the trouble.

PURELY S.S.S VEGETABLE

When the blood is overburdened with uric acid it grows thinner and poorer in nourishing qualities. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic and not only a painful but a dangerous disease. You can get rid of Rheumatism by purifying the blood with S. S. S. This vegetable remedy goes into the circulation, neutralizes and removes the uric acid, and by building up the thin, sour blood, safely and surely cures the disease. S. S. S. makes rich, nourishing blood, which quiets excited nerves, eases the painful muscles and joints and filters out every particle of irritating uric acid from the system. ACTIVE COVERING IN COTTON

Gulf Storm Apprehensions and More Optimistic View of European Sotuation Cause Movement—Close Barely Steady.

New York, Oct. 16.—Gulf storm apprehensions and a somewhat more optimistic view of the European situation, caused a quite active covering movement in the cotton market today, but prices eased off in the late trading and the close was barely steady, net five points lower to five points higher, near months being relatively easy.

The opening was steady at a decline of 3 to 7 points on October, and November, but generally one to two points higher on covering by some of yesterday's sellers, who did not like the appearance of the weather map, and on reports that the settlement between Italy and Turkey had imparted a firmer tone to the European security markets. There was some little irregularity right after the call, owing to heavy Southern selling and after showing a net advance of from 6 to 7 points the market eased off to about the opening figures, but the official forecast for rain and high winds in Texas and light frost in North Carolina started renewed covering, and the market became decidedly firmer during the middle of the day. Advices from New Orleans, indicating that the Gulf storm was working westward toward the South Texas coast, with increasing intensity, added to the nervousness of shorts, and for a time the demand was urgent. Prices sold 9 to 12 points over the closing figures of last night, before the covering movement subsided, but the South continued to sell and the market turned easy in the last hour on advices indicating that the Gulf disturbance, might be too far South to do much harm in the belt, and reports of a much easier spot situation. December was relatively easy, under scattering liquidation and closed about eight points under January.

Spot, quiet. Middling uplands, 10.75; do. gulf, 11.00. Sales, 9 bales.

Futures closed barely steady.

STOCK SENTIMENT BULLISH

Market Opened Broad, Active and Strong on Account of Better View of Foreign Situation—Many Gains

New York, Oct. 16.—Cessation of the war between Italy and Turkey stimulated bullish sentiment on all the foreign exchanges today, that feeling later spreading to our own markets, which opened active, broad and strong. The movement ran largely toward the specialties and "pooled" issues, although many standard securities registered material gains.

Canadian Pacific was again the chief feature of the railway group, opening with a rise of over four points, and many other issues gained from one to three points. Coppers were especially strong, United States Steel, as well as the issues of the independent iron companies, were active at better prices, to the accompaniment of another upward revision of price schedules.

In the final hour dealings fell off and the list, with a few exceptions, showed the effects of extensive realizing. The close, however, was active, with another upward movement in progress.

London followed its home buying of Americans with further purchases here.

Local money rates indicated increased firmness, despite increased supply. Easier monetary conditons prevailed abroad.

Bonds were steady and fairly active. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,605,000. United States bonds, unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today, 509,200 shares.

COL. ROOSEVELT NOT YET OUT OF DANGER

to examine Schrank.

It is understood each alienist will make his individual examination.

Schrank spent most of today writing but so far nothing he has written has been made public. Sheriff Arnold says Schrank has not attempted to pass anything that has been written out of his cell. Until he does this, the sheriff will not avail himself of the privilege of scrutinizing any written communications.

The letters found on Schrank after he had shot Col. Roosevelt indicate, alienists say, paranoia.

Bryan on Roosevelt's Injury.

Franklin, Ind., Oct. 16.—"It is embarrassing to discuss Mr. Roosevelt or his policies at this time, while he is suffering from the murderous assault made upon him," was the way William J. Bryan opened his Indiana tour here today.

"I would rather occupy the time," continued Mr. Bryan, "in expression of sympathy for him, but the issues of this campaign should not be determined by the act of a mad man.

"Col. Roosevelt could not ask that the discussion be turned away from the principles that are involved. If he is elected President it should be because of what he has done in the past and what he proposes to do. A maniac, however dastardly his deed, is not the arbiter to whom to submit a Presidential contest."

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The first X-Ray plate which definitely shows the bullet in Colonel Roosevelt's body, was developed this afternoon. The bullet is shown partly imbedded in the fracture on the fourth rib, about four inches from the sternum. The bullet is much flattened and spread out of shape. It is crushed into the upper edge of the rib. Several smaller pieces of bone project near it. The radiograph shows an extraordinary spread and arch to the uninjured ribs, indicating the unusual size of the Colonel's lungs and developments of chest.

The position of the bullet is at the lower corner of a right-angled triangle, the apex of which is in the middle of the sternum, perpendicularly opposite the missle, and the other corner of which is the supra-sternal notch. Wires laid on Colonel Roosevelt's bare chest to form a guiding line on the plate, show the exact location of the bullet with reference to the ribs and sternum.

The surgeons in charge of the case from the first have refused to state in any manner whether the flesh was lacerated in the passage of the bullet.

No information on this point can be obtained from the stenographer. Gunshot wounds inflicted by soft lead bullets, such as that fired by Schrank into the body of Colonel Roosevelt, commonly are lacerated.

Asked tonight when the radiograph was finished if the wound was lacerated, Dr. Terrell, who had been left in charge by Dr. Murphy and Dr. Bevan, said:

"This is a point on which we have given no statement and will not give any at present. I cannot say anything as to the character of the wound.

"The bullet ranged inward and up after it struck the Colonel right beside the nipple on his right breast," Dr. Terrell said. It's course probably was affected by the objects through which it passed. The radiograph does not clearly show its exact shape at present.

According to examinations, the bullet is from four to five inches below the surface and in reaching its present position made a slanting wound from six to seven inches long.

It will not be necessary to set Colonel Roosevelt's fractured rib or put him in a plaster of paris bandage, according to Dr. Terrell.

"Fractures of the rib seldom are set unless the bone is out of place," said Dr. Terrell. "This one is not extensive enough to call for treatment of that sort."

It is stated that several more days will be required before it can be seen if the wound is to be healed without suppuration.

Present day sportsmen hunt grizzly bears with weapons of less calibre than the 38-calibre with which the heavy lead bullet was fired into the Colonel. The usual calibre for big game is 35 and the Colonel has killed lions in Africa with smaller bullets than that in his chest. Such a bullet would drop an elk in its tracks or knock a black bear off his feet. That he could stand up and make a speech with a 38-calibre bullet flattened against one of his ribs is admitted by the surgeons to be remarkable.

Dr. Terrell said probably the physicians would not meet again tonight and that no bulletins as to the Colonel's condition would be issued before morning.

DONATION TO LIBRARY.

Asheville Lady Makes Valuable Contribution to the State.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 16.—Mrs. C. Gilleland Aston, of "Aston Place," Asheville, North Carolina, has donated to the State Library of North Carolina the following books or magazines, bound in book form, to wit:

"The Town and Country Magazine, or Universal Repository of Knowledge, Instruction and Entertainment, the year 1772," over six hundred pages, several pages missing.

The others are Volumes I and II of The Columbian Magazine, or Monthly Miscellany, containing a view of the History, Literature, Manners and Characters of the year 1787, Emolit Mores. Volume I has 884 pages and an index; volume II, with the same inscription as volume I, for the year 1788, has 750 pages and an index. On the fly leaf is written "John Young's Book, 1839." On the lids are pasted bills of money of Alabama, North Carolina and South Carolina, bearing the dates 1861, 1862 and 1863.

The State Librarian, the Board of Trustees and the great State of North Carolina sincerely thank Mrs. Alston for this donation. There is in those books a "store house" of news and information at the very beginning of this great country of ours.

MILES O. SHERRILL,
State Librarian.

EVIDENCE AGAINST ETTOR

Witnesses Testify He Made Some Damaging Statements

Salem, Mass., Oct. 16.—Statements alleged to have been made by Joseph J. Ettor while conducting the textile strike in Lawrence last Winter, and on which the commonwealth partly bases its charge that Ettor was an accessory before the fact to the shooting of Anna Lopizzo, were related by witnesses for the prosecution at the trial of Ettor and his two associates of the Industrial Workers of the World today.

Harold F. Wheeler, a newspaper man, testified that Ettor, when informed that troops were to be called to Lawrence, said:

"I don't care if they bring an army here and put a gallows on every street corner. We showed them what we could do this morning."

Another newspaper man, Joseph P. Toye,, testified that after a riot Ettor said:

"I was not surprised to learn what happened Friday, but I am surprised that that was all that happened."

On another occasion the witness said Ettor remarked:

"If the licenses to carry arms which have been granted to 'scabs' in the mills are not revoked we will keep the shops busy selling us guns. I'll get one myself."

Other utterances, credited to Ettor by the witness, were:

"Hereafter we won't pay a cent in fines. If the city will not feed the strikers outside the jails they will be fed inside.

"It is all very well for the judges to sit in soft-cushioned chairs with their wigs and robes while the people starve."

Arturo Giovannitti, who with Ettor is charged with being an accessory before the fact to the murder, and Joseph Caruso, the alleged principal, were barely mentioned in the evidence today.

CONTINUE ACTIVITIES

Marshall and Johnson Will Go On With the Campaign

New York, Oct. 16.—The withdrawal of Governor Wilson from the political platform will not affect activities of Governor Marshall and Governor Johnson, Vice Presidential candidates, respectively, of the Democrats and Progressive tickets. The Democratic National Campaign Committee, in session here, advised Governor Marshall to continue his Western tour and Progressive leaders were tonight figuring out the possibility of having Governor Johnson fill the most important engagements Colonel Roosevelt has been forced to abandon. Congressman Burleson, Senator Gore, Secretary Joseph E. Davies, Robert Ewing, of Louisiana, and W. R. King, of Oregon, avtive managers in the Chicago Democratic headquarters, participated in the conference of the Democratic Campaign Committee today.

At its conclusion Chairman McCombs made public a resolution in part, as follows:

"We deplore the attempted assassination of ex President Roosevelt and wish for him a recovery alike speedy and complete."

It was announced at Democratic headquarters that it is intended to make October 31st "Wilson Day." It is planned to have meetings in every large city in the United States at which parts of Governor Wilson's speech in Madison Square Garden, flashed by wire to the various meetings, will be read to the audiences.

Athens, Greece, Oct. 16.—The Turkish minister to Greece has received orders to leave Athens at once.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The Turkish armies have been ordered to take the offensive immediately, according to a dispatch from Constantinople to the Temps.

London, Oct. 16.—The declaration of war by Bulgaria against Turkey was published in Sofia this evening, according to news agency dispatches from Paris.

Rome, Oct. 16.—The Italian press today is elated over the signature of peace with Turkey at Ouchy, and hails it generally as the crowning of the Italian victories on the battle fields in Tripoli. The Russian govrnment today announced that it recognized the Italian sovereignty over Lybia.

WITNESS ASSAULTED.

Harry E. Pearce, "Dynamite" Witness, Slugged and Robbed.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 16.—Harry E. Pearce, who testified in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial at Indianapolis, Ind., Monday, was slugged and robbed of $5 here last night. He was found by a pedestrian and taken to the hospital where it was learned his injuries consisted of a severe bruise on the head.

Pearce says he doubts if the attack was an outgrowth of his Indianapolis testimony, but asserts he was warned to expect trouble.

Pearce, who is a clerk in a local hotel, says as he was boarding a train in Indianapolis after having testified in the trial there, a man stepped up and said: "You'd better look sharp, there's trouble ahead for you."

ROOSEVELT SUPPORTER SHOT.

Hit by Bullet Fired by Fanatic Celebrating Wounding of Colonel.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 16.—Charles Brown, a Roosevelt supporter, was shot in the hip late last night by a fanatic who was apparently celebrating the shooting of Col. Roosevelt.

Brown had purchased a paper from a newsboy, who cried out the news of the shooting, when a man standing a few feet distant drew a revolver, and shouting "Hurrah!" fired two shots, one of which struck Brown. Brown collapsed, and the shooter escaped.

VIRGINIA'S GOVERNOR.

Goes to Massachusetts to Campaign for Democracy.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 16.—Governor Mann, it was announced today, will leave Friday for Massachusetts, where he will make six or seven speeches for the Democratic National ticket, later touring through Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. He will be on the stump for two weeks and expects to make on an average of three addresses a day.

MESSAGE TO THE NATION FROM T. R.

question, and in view of the fact that in New Jersey he had ample power to deal with trusts, he nevertheless during the entire time he has been Governor has failed to take action of any kind, sort or description against the Standard Oil, tobacco, sugar, beef trust, or any other trust.

"He owes it to the American people," declares the former President's message, "to answer this question directly and specifically, and he cannot answer it satisfactorily."

BLADEN SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Bragaw Presiding at Criminal Term—Elizabethtown Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., Oct. 16.—Superior Court convened here yesterday for a one-week term for the trial of criminal cases, Judge Bragaw presiding, and Solicitor Sinclair at his post. There is quite a full docket this term with eight or nine prisoners in jail. The most serious case for trial is a small colored boy for shooting his father. Judge Bragaw is much praised by the people in Bladen for his fairness and rapidity in dispensing justice.

Homer L. Lyon, Esq., spoke here Monday to a packed house in the court room in the interest of Senator Simmons. Mr. Lyon made many votes for Mr. Simmons, despite the fact that Bladen is largely for the Senator, by telling the people what those 19 votes Mr. Kitchin charges him with voting with the Republicans were for. "Homer" is a Bladen boy and his people love to hear him speak, which was evident by the hearty applause given him.

Hon. Ellis Gardner, elector at large, spoke to a crowd of representative voters here today in the court house. It had been advertised that Senator Lee S. Overman would speak, but he could not fill his appointment and Mr. Gardner was sent in his stead. Mr. Gardner made an eloquent appeal to the people and proved himself a great speaker and no doubt did much good for the cause of Democracy. His comparisons of the old and "new" Republican party were rich and applauded by everybody.

Among the visiting attorneys here for court are Col. David Lewis and his partner, H. L. Lyon and Jackson Greer, of the Whiteville bar; S. McIntyre, William Britt, L. R. Varser and R. E. Lee, Esq., of the Lumberton bar, and Mr. Shep. Hall, of the Fayetteville bar.

SEVERE GULF STORM

Railroad Tracks Washed Out—Small Buildings Wrecked

Corpus Christi, Texas, Oct. 16.—Beyond the washing out of railroad tracks and the wrecking of several small buildings, the Gulf storm which raged along the southwestern coast of Texas last night and early today has caused no serious damage, so far as reports received tonight indicate.

Last night the wind reached a velocity of 52 miles here, but decreased today.

At Port Aransas, one small building was blown away. At Brownsville several buildings were damaged and one man hurt. The storm is moving inland and the wind is decreasing in velocity. Its path today was through a sparsely settled section.

Twenty-seven hundred feet of the railway which connects the town of Aransas Pass and Port Aransas is reported to have been washed away. Communication with Point Isabel, 20 miles south of Brownsville, which was interrupted early today, was restored tonight. The damage there consised of the wrecking of several small buildings. A number of fishing boats were capsized but no loss of life has been reported.

At Corpus Christi the municipal wharf under construction was slightly damaged.

CRAIG IN DURHAM

Little Giant of Mountains Addresses First Voters' Club

Durham, N. C., Oct. 16.— Hon. Locke Craig, next Governor of North Carolina, spoke in the Court House to a big and enthusiastic audience tonight. He was escorted to the hall by the First Voters' Club and was introduced by Sneed Sasser, of the club. His election, he said, is a sure thing if the signs throughout the State are fulfilled. He painted an effective picture of the last proceeds of Republican misrule here, when a negro was placed in charge of the blind children of the State and his named engraved in the cornerstone. He declared taxes on the conquered people of ancient history were paltry to the present robbery of the people by the protective tariff. Since there is no Republican party, a Democratic President must be elected, and on November 6th, the reign of equal justice will begin in America to last forever.

A Penny and a Five-Dollar Gold Piece

Bear a distinct family resemblance in size, if not in relation of quality. Consequently if the gold piece is kept in close association with pennies it is likely to share the fate of being taken for one, or rather GIVEN for one, as happened not long ago with a friend of ours.

The lady paid the milkman, as she thought, fifteen cents, but in reality handed him fourteen pennies and the little gold piece, not discovering her error until the following day.
